'Heavy Mobilization In

Battalions Ready,
Report Declares

ROME, Aug. 6. (AP)—Premier Mussolini today called 75,000 more men to arms "as a consequence of heavy Ethiopian mobilizations."

He ordered the mobilization of two regular army divisions and a volunteer fascist Black Shirt division and created two replacement divisions.

The long expected "Communiqué No. 9" announced the new increase in Italy's fighting strength.

Call Regular Division

It stated the Asietta division of the regular army, commanded by General Riccardi, has been called.

Estimating the strength at an average of 15,000 men to a division, the order will bring Italy's white forces in Eritrea and Italian Somaliland to 195,000 men.

A check of southern embarkation points indicates that almost 100,000 of these already have departed.

Two divisions of natives, raised in East Africa early this year, increased the regular territorial forces of 10,000 men.

140,000 Troops in Line

Thus, it is estimated that 140,000 troops already are in line in the two colonies.

With the arrival of the new contingents in training, or about to start training in Italy, the total figure will be swelled to 235,000.

Well informed sources explained, however, that this was only an estimated total. A report long has circulated that Premier Mussolini has created in East Africa or sent there numerous battalions of which the world knows nothing.

It was explained that the government has a definite military

WASHINGTON.—The senate today approved the conference report on the McKellar-Mead bill limiting the compensation of officials of air mail contracting lines and making other changes in air mail laws.

BARS AAA TAXING
SAN FRANCISCO.—Federal Judge A. F. St. Sure today issued a temporary injunction restraining Collector of Internal Revenue John V. Lewis from collecting AAA processing taxes from seven manufacturers suing for a permanent injunction. Judge St. Sure also denied a motion by the government for dismissal of the actions.

NEW 'OLDEST' BIBLE FOUND

Here's One Printed In 1601!

As far back as 1601, Bibles of Orange county residents were being printed. Mrs. F. S. Donaldson, 401 East Fifth street, told The Journal today.

Announcement that Mrs. R. K. Dobson's 122-year-old Bible had been awarded the title of the "oldest" Bible in Orange county brought out of its wrappings the 334-year old English Bible printed in 1601, belonging to Mrs. Donaldson.

"Imprinted at London by Robert Barker, printer to the queen," according to the frontispiece, the Bible has ornate borders and sec-

'Wes' Taylor, Rotary Safety Boss, Faces Traffic Count

Wesley A. Taylor—"Wes" to his friends—is in a jam. The widely known broker and chairman of the Rotary club's traffic safety committee, must appear before Justice Kenneth Morrison August 16 to defend himself against a charge of driving through a boulevard stop.

Members of the Rotary club were on the lookout for "Wes" at noon today in the Green Cat cafe. They planned to make the matter a special order of business, or whatever it is they do in such cases. They anticipated seeing Mr. Taylor's face as red as a Soviet flag; but at the time they sat down to lunch, he had not appeared. Up until today "Wes" had a 100 per cent attendance record. Telephone calls to his residence remained unanswered. Mr. Taylor just couldn't be found.

It happened this way:

Mr. Taylor was driving south on state highway 101 and when he came to the intersection with the Coast highway at Serra, he assertedly failed to stop.

Wes does not carry one of the famous "gold courtesy" cards issued by E. Raymond Cato, highway patrol chief; in fact he has complained that he thinks giving these cards away is a bad practice because it looks like favoritism.

Mr. Taylor asked that he be allowed to appear before Justice of the Peace Morrison, instead of Justice of the Peace John Landell at San Juan Capistrano. The request was granted.

Captain Henry Meehan of the highway patrol here says the offense is a misdemeanor punishable by a maximum fine of $50 or five days in jail. Judge Morrison remarked that very few offenders get the maximum fine.

BERLIN FEARS 2ND TYPHOON GAMES LOSS

Nazis Concentrate On Preparing For Next Olympic Competition

BERLIN, Aug. 6. (AP)—An authoritative source expressed the belief today that fear of losing the 1936 Olympic Games because of the campaign against Jews and "political Catholicism" lay behind Nazi attempts to obstruct foreign correspondents.

Loss of the games at Berlin would come close to being a major setback for the Nazi regime, economically, as well as politically.

Millions of marks are being spent on preparations, with officials counting on an influx of foreign money to stimulate declining business.

Informed sources said certain Nazi quarters were convinced that there existed among foreign correspondents a scheme to have the international committee cancel the games.

The ousting of some newspapermen and the influencing of those remaining against sending abroad reports of the attacks against Jews and "political Catholicism" were said authoritatively to be the method of Dr. Paul Joseph Goebbels, minister of propaganda, for dealing with the alleged plot.

Members of the Foreign Press association said they were mystified as to why government officials should believe charges of the existence of any plot.

WPA REFUSES 'VIGILANTES' RED THREAT

Official Denies Demand That Communists Be Taken From Rolls

THREATEN LEADERS

Director Given 48 Hours To Comply in Santa Rosa Controversy

SANTA ROSA, Calif., Aug. 6. (AP)—Works Progress administration officials today stood firm in their refusal to "knock off" all Communists, reds and radicals from work relief rolls as was demanded yesterday by six men who said they were representing 300 "vigilantes."

The committee called upon F. M. Holley, district PWA director and gave him 48 hours to comply with the demand.

Holley said he told the men that if they had any evidence of illegal activities on the part of the persons objected to they should present it to the department of justice for investigation.

He said the men, who would not give him their names, intimidated labor leaders charged with urging apple pickers in this area to strike for higher wages will be forcibly ejected if the federal officials fail to meet their demand within the 48-hour period.

Those acquainted with Post's sudden changes of mind and conflicting announcements about his plans were waiting at the Renton airport, 12 miles south of here, today. However, in case the filer, his wife and Rogers should attempt a secret start.

The plane was not fueled for a long flight, equipment presumably for an extended journey in the far north was not stowed aboard, and mechanics at the field said minor adjustments still must be made to pontoons and the motor.

Rogers, who arrived here late yesterday by plane from San Francisco, said he intended to accompany the Posts to Alaska, probably as far as Juneau, but that he had no intention of continuing.

CRAMER FIRED OVER SCHEME

WEST ORANGE, N. J., Aug. 6. (AP)—Edwin P. Cramer, who suggested a "whispering" campaign against the New Deal, has lost his job and now he wants to be a "forgotten man."

Cramer said he holds no ill will against the Thomas A. Edison company, which discharged him as editor of a "whispering" campaign against the New Deal, because of so reprehensible a plan as the covert attack on President Roosevelt, he suggested as a means of combating the utilities bill.

200 MILLION TO CONTINUE CCC

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6. (AP)—President Roosevelt today allotted $200,000,000 of work relief funds to help carry the Civilian Conservation Corps through the current fiscal year.

The money will be used mainly to expand the CCC to full strength of 600,000, the announcement said. The enrolled strength now is 425,000.

6 ARE CHARGED WITH PIRACY

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 6. (AP)—Information charging six men, now in custody in connection with the pirate-like looting of the gambling ship Monte Carlo, with "attacking" vessel on the high seas with intent to plunder, were issued today by Pioneer Hall, U. S. district attorney.

The suspects are August Wundelich, George Wundelich, Lerell D. Boyd, Walter Miller, Carl Carillo and Frank Gibbon.

BANKER PASSES AT ANAHEIM

LONG BEACH, Aug. 6. (AP)—Funeral services will be held here Thursday afternoon for William H. Wallace, 65, former Long Beach assistant city manager and pioneer banker here, who died in an Anaheim hospital last night.

Courtesy Cards Outlawed By Motor Vehicle Chief

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 6. (AP)—Courtesy cards, miniature badges or other special favors which have been handed out by the state highway patrol were outlawed today by R. Ray Ingels, newly appointed director of motor vehicles.

Ingels said highway patrolmen have been instructed not to honor them and said no more will be issued.

"Those that have been issued might just as well be stored in the archives of mementoes for all the good they will do," he said.

E. Raymond Cato, chief of the patrol, said the badges and cards were not intended to be used for special privileges but only for identification purposes.

Will Going on Alaska Hop To Keep Wolves from Plane

Will Rogers (lower right), actor-humorist, today admitted he was going along with Wiley and Mrs. Post when they hop from Seattle for Alaska on the first leg of a flight to Siberia and Moscow. The Posts (top) will leave Rogers in Alaska.

'I'm No Hunter,' Says Humorist On Eve Of 'Pleasure Jaunt'

SEATTLE, Aug. 6. (AP)—Two famous cronies of the air—Wiley Post and Will Rogers—were nearly ready today to take off in Post's new red monoplane for Alaska, the first jump in the plane's journey to Siberia and Moscow.

Unfavorable weather ahead and Post's last-minute decision again to test pontoons with which he replaced wheels on the plane were expected to delay the start until tomorrow.

Those acquainted with Post's sudden changes of mind and conflicting announcements about his plans were waiting at the Renton airport, 12 miles south of here, today. However, in case the filer, his wife and Rogers should attempt a secret start.

The plane was not fueled for a long flight, equipment presumably for an extended journey in the far north was not stowed aboard, and mechanics at the field said minor adjustments still must be made to pontoons and the motor.

POLICE SEEK WITNESS

Utility Lobby Probers Want Hopson For His Testimony

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6. (AP)—The aid of Washington police was sought today by the house rules committee in its effort to locate H. C. Hopson, dominant figure in The Associated Gas and Electric system, whose testimony is wanted by two congressional investigating committees.

Impatient at delay in locating the long-sought witness, wanted for questioning in the utility lobby investigation, the house committee gave a description of him to the police department.

It took this action after a fruitless search was made at the Shoreham hotel for Hopson by the house and senate committees.

The search was started when the house committee received testimony from B. B. Robinson, Associated Gas and Electric representative, that he had talked with Hopson at the hotel last night.

Herbert A. Bloomquist, chief senate investigator, and C. H. Tavenner, house committee investigator, arrived at the hotel with a subpoena.

Hopson, however, apparently had left. Hotel officials said he was not registered and had not been seen.

HOPE SCHEME WILL SPEED TAX PLAN

Additions to Roosevelt Levy Program Voted Down By Group

'PLOT' BY RICH TOLD

Veteran Legislation To Be Given Preference In Next Congress

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6. (AP)—A decision to block efforts to attach bonus payment or other "extraneous" issues to the Roosevelt tax bill was reached today by senate democratic leaders.

At the same time they agreed to give bonus legislation preferred status at the next congress.

Expressing hope that this would speed adjournment, Senator Robinson, majority leader, said many bonus advocates felt a tax bill amendment would not develop the full strength that the proposal might muster if offered separately next year.

Rich Should Pay

Earlier, Robert H. Jackson, internal revenue bureau counsel, told a senate tax bill committee that added revenue to go toward balancing the budget and paying the cost of fighting the depression should be contributed by the "propertied class" according to its ability to pay.

He declared there had been a "general conspiracy" among the rich to evade taxes in the past.

While refraining from indorsing rates in the bill, the prepared statement Jackson read said the "burden of taxation should be so readjusted as to meet the cost of government by a recovery tax program that will eliminate the present inequities and that will not impair the purchasing power of the mass of consumers."

Jackson contended the administration "inherited" a tax structure "out of balance" with ability to pay. He suggested the "trend should be reversed."

FARLEY MAY BE COUNTY GUEST

Postmaster-General James A. Farley may visit Orange county and attend the dedication of the new postoffice in Orange, scheduled for August 25.

During his visit last week in Los Angeles Mr. Farley was invited to attend the dedicatory exercises and indicated that he would accept if he returns from his vacation trip to Honolulu before the date set for the exercises.

Mrs. Vera Wettlin, acting postmaster in Orange, has announced that William Evans, chairman of the Federal Housing administration in Southern California, would be the principal speaker at the exercises and deliver the dedicatory address.

So the News Spread:

Nancy, the quaint little character in the comic strip, Fritz Ritz, was hungry. She passed a restaurant with a big, plate-glass window and there she saw a great, big man eating loads of goodies. What a meal, thought Nancy—and what a sight to place before the eyes of a hungry little girl! So she watched and watched. And the big man, seeing her, couldn't stand it any longer. So he reached in his pocket, found a one-dollar bill and handed it to Nancy, hoping she would run along and spend it and thus relieve him of the uneasy feeling he had in being watched by longing eyes while he gorged himself. Nancy took the dollar and ran away and then—what do you suppose happened? Turn to the classified advertising page and see for yourself. It is another one of the laughs you'll find daily in Fritz Ritz and all the other members of The Journal's big family of funnies.

MOB OF 3000 TEARS DOWN TRICOLOR

BUSINESS IS HALTED

Official Defies Gang to Jerk Red Emblem From Building

BREST, France, Aug. 6. (AP)—Rioting strikers today tore down the tricolor flag of France from the subprefecture here and hoisted a red flag in its place.

A dozen persons were injured in street fighting which broke out after workers in the French navy shipyards had engaged in battle with police and troops.

Business was suspended in the port. Shops were locked and windows barred.

The red flag raised by the mob was torn down by Subprefect Jacques Henry, defying the mass of strikers who pelted him with stones and bricks and chanted the communist hymn, "Internationale."

Henry climbed a wall and jerked the red banner from the lanyards. About 5,000 strikers took part in the demonstration.

USE OF TOKENS HELD ILLEGAL

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6. (AP)—Secretary Morgenthau will notify four states that their sales tax tokens are illegal.

Legal experts in his department have concluded that use of tokens manufactured by states for payment of sub-penny sales taxes is illegal, and Illinois, Colorado, Missouri and Washington will be notified immediately of the decision.

KILLS IN-LAWS, SHOOTS SELF

BELOIT, Kas., Aug. 6. (AP)—Ralph James, 35-year-old ex-convict, today shot and killed his father-in-law and mother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Gould, probably fatally wounded his estranged wife, Helen Gould James, and then killed himself.

WHITE HOUSE TO IGNORE HUEY LONG'S CHALLENGE FOR DEBATE

KINGFISH HITS PRESIDENT'S PROGRAM

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6. (AP)—The White House is expected to greet with silence the challenge to an open debate which Senator Huey Long tossed at President Roosevelt.

Though the Louisiana senator and the administration have long been engaged in a feud, the strategy of the latter has not included public replies to the assaults of Long.

Offering to "guarantee the crowds," Long proposed yesterday that the president meet him in Louisiana, or elsewhere, to debate the New Deal.

The challenge was voiced in the first senate speech Long has made in two weeks. He indicated he was stirred to hurt it by newspaper headlines saying that the president might soon visit Arkansas to support Senator Robinson, democratic leader who is up for re-election next year, and to open an anti-Long campaign in the South.

"If Mr. Roosevelt has that idea," said Long, "Why pick Arkansas? That's a long way off. That's next fall, a year from now. There's an election in Louisiana in January. Don't know how badly he's needed in Arkansas, but the anti-Long element needs him mighty bad in Louisiana right now."

ROTARY HEARS LEGISLATORS

Members of the Santa Ana Rotary club today heard an address by Orange county's representatives in the state legislature—Senator Nelson T. Edwards, speaker of the house, Edward Craig and Assemblyman James B. Utt. The speakers were introduced by W. B. Williams, program chairman.

Mr. Utt outlined difficulties encountered while attempting to do the best job possible in legislative matters, referring in particular to the passage by the legislature during its recent session of the income tax bill. He explained that while the farm bureau in Orange county favored passage of the bill, the county as a whole was opposed to it. He said that under the circumstances it was necessary for him to act as he thought best, and so he voted in favor of the tax bill.

Mr. Utt said that while he was opposed to all forms of exemption from taxation, he felt, as did many others, that if foodstuffs had not been exempted from the sales tax it would have spelled death to the entire sales tax plan.

Speaker Craig expressed his belief that there would be another session of the legislature this winter for the purpose of raising $24,000,000 for relief purposes for the following year. He particularly complimented Senator Edwards, saying that in his opinion he was the best speaker in Sacramento.

Senator Edwards discussed briefly the problem faced by legislators in finding out just what their constituents really want. He said the difference between the present legislature and that of two years ago was that the state has a man in Governor Merriam who knows how to get things done.

Robert Brown, who sang on the program today, was presented a bouquet in appreciation for the numerous occasions he has sung for the club.

HEARING TONIGHT ON SCHOOL BUDGET

The board of education tonight will hold a public hearing on the $759,059 school budget recently approved by the board. Superintendent of Schools Frank Henderson said no protests to the proposed budget have been received as yet.

Charles Webber, auditor for the board, pointed out that this year's budget, as the result of an increase in teachers' salaries, is approximately $3000 greater than the amount expended last year.

PLAN SUPPER, DANCE

The Native Sons of the Golden West will have a picnic supper and dance for members and families tomorrow evening at 6:30 o'clock in Irvine park.

COUNTY BUDGET MAY STAND Increase, If Any, to Be Small

Adjourning at noon until 2 p. m. Friday, the board of supervisors prepared to go into executive session this afternoon for consideration of the 1935-36 budget.

While nothing definite is known as to what the budget will total when finally approved by the supervisors, it is indicated that it probably will not exceed that of last year, which was $1,720,793.

Preliminary estimates by county officials are that if any increase is made at all, it will not exceed last year's figure by more than $100,000.

MORE ABOUT ROGERS

Post, taciturn as usual, or even more so, left whatever talking was done to Rogers. The humorist film actor in turn explained he trusted Post as a flier and that all details of the flight were being arranged by Post.

"A Pleasure Jaunt"

When Rogers first arrived, he parried all questions about flying with the Posts, but finally disclosed that he was going on "the pleasure jaunt."

"I've never been to Alaska," Rogers said, "and as Wiley's a mighty good flier, it's a good chance. I want to have a look at the Matanuska colony while I'm north. I want to see what the democrats have done to the republicans."

Post described the flight as a hunting and fishing expedition, in part. Rogers disclaimed all interest in outdoor sports and volunteered "to keep the wolves away from the plane" while Post was hunting.

HARBOR WORK NEARS END

Development and improvement work of Newport harbor, under direction of United States army engineers, will be completed within two months, Nat. Neff, county highway superintendent, announced today.

In a report received by Mr. Neff from government engineers in charge of the $2,000,000 project, it was announced that dredging operations at the entrance of the harbor will be completed tomorrow and the San Pablo dredge removed.

All dredging in the harbor was 79.3 per cent completed on August 1, according to government engineers, and will be entirely completed by September 1. Work on the west jetty is 35 per cent completed, and the east jetty is 46 per cent completed, and scheduled for completion October 1.

COUNTY TO AID HIGHWAY JOB

Twenty-five per cent of the county's $36,000 allotment from the $200,000,000 allocation of federal funds for highway projects under the new Works Progress administration set-up will be used for feeder roads outside municipalities not included in the state highway system or federal aid system, Nat. Neff, county highway superintendent, revealed today.

An additional 25 per cent of the county's allocation will be used on federal aid highways inside the cities.

All projects to benefit under the allocation, said Mr. Neff, must first be submitted to the state highway department for approval, after which the project is forwarded to the district engineer of the bureau of public roads for examination and review.

Following this review the project is referred to the state director of the National Emergency Council and then to the state administrator of WPA. The final step is referred back to the bureau of public roads for final action.

RELIEF TO 4221 DURING JULY

During the month ending July 31, the State Emergency Relief administration here spent $143,046.80 in extending work and direct relief to 4221 persons. The total number benefiting from the program was $12,723.

Terrence Halloran, SERA administrator, made these facts public today in his monthly report.

During July, 578 persons applied for relief. Of this number 195 were found eligible, 225 were rejected and 158 cases were not acted upon.

Direct relief was extended in 942 cases at a cost of $30,290.85. Work relief was provided for 2801 persons at a cost of $105,691.65. In addition direct relief was given to 151 single persons at a cost of $2549.35, and work relief was extended to 327 single persons at a cost of $4514.95.

BEACHES FIGHT 'POLLUTION'

Two protests, one from Balboa and the other from Sunset Beach, against alleged pollution of the beaches and waters were filed today with the board of supervisors.

From Balboa the Bay Island club protested the asserted practice of yachts anchored in the harbor discharging oil and bilge water into the bay. They also charged that other waste and untreated sewage is dumped into the waters from the yachts. The protest was turned over to the county health department for investigation. A copy of the protest has also been filed with the Newport Beach city council.

From Sunset Beach a protest, signed by 72 voters, protested against alleged pollution of the beach and waters by the practice of oil tankers discharging oil and other waste, the beach "is a solid mass of tar." This protest was referred to the district attorney for investigation.

MORE PLANS FOR LABOR DAY MADE

Plans for the annual Labor Day celebration, scheduled for Irvine park this year, and progress on the labor year book were the principal business matters transacted last night at the meeting of Central Labor union of Orange county.

The year book is being printed by the Campbell Printing company and will be for the purpose of educating unorganized labor on the fundamentals and principles of the labor movement.

An invitation from the Huntington Beach chamber of commerce to hold the Labor Day celebration at the beach city was read, but was not accepted as the labor council already had made arrangements for use of Irvine park.

MORE HARBOR DREDGING SOUGHT

Approval of the board of supervisors for additional dredging in Newport harbor, deepening the channel at Balboa and at Newport, was requested today by R. L. Patterson, Newport Beach city engineer, and George Rodgers, one of the leaders in the campaign which resulted in securing federal financing for the $2,000,000 harbor development project now nearing completion there.

Mr. Patterson said the additional dredging can be done at a cost of $127,000 and will be paid for from the estimated $200,000 surplus now remaining in the fund raised through a bond issue and federal grant for the harbor project.

He said the plan is to deepen the area at Balboa from the present 10-foot depth to 20 feet, and to deepen the channel at Newport to 15 feet. This work can be done at a lower cost at this time, he said, than at any other because the dredging companies have their equipment in the harbor.

By deepening the channel, he pointed out, it would make possible accommodations for the larger pleasure yachts in Southern California that would make Newport bay their headquarters if a sufficiently deep channel and turning basin were provided.

The matter was taken under advisement until the afternoon session pending a ruling from Assistant District Attorney W. F. Menton relative to legality of the request.

AAA HINGES ON PROCESS TAX

Termination of the Agricultural Adjustment administration's processing taxes, now under court attack, would mean the end of the farmers' programs for adjustment of production and attainment of fair income in the opinion of Chester Davis, AAA administrator at Washington.

A communication to this effect has just been received here by Farm Advisor Harold Wahlberg. The processing taxes, used to finance benefit payments to farmers for curtailing production, are scheduled to be ruled upon by the supreme court in the Hoosac Mills case. A federal circuit court recently ruled them unconstitutional.

Mr. Davis said in his communication that these taxes are such a fundamental part of the AAA program that when the tax question is settled, the whole of the present farm plan also will be pretty much settled. He said he knew of no other source of continuing revenue to provide funds for the farm program.

The communication also said Mr. Davis believes the government at present is morally obligated to meet all contracts as far as performance has been rendered by producers.

Local leaders have been hopeful that amendments to the AAA will remove objectionable features and allow continuation of the California-Arizona citrus marketing agreement. It has been thought that this agreement would stand unless directly attacked in court.

SLEEPER FIGHTS LOWER VALUES

County Assessor James Sleeper today that he plans to leave tomorrow for Sacramento where he will appear before the state board of equalization to protest any proposed lowering of valuations on public utility properties in this county.

Yesterday the board of equalization announced that public utility properties in the county had been valued at $16,956,870. This valuation is only tentative as the utilities have two weeks in which to petition for re-assessment.

Mr. Sleeper is prepared to go before the board of equalization and protest any lowering of the rate on the grounds that it would be a penalty on private property. The utilities property is being returned to the counties for tax purposes this year.

As a basis for his argument Mr. Sleeper will cite the case of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric steam plant at Seal Beach which, he said, represents an investment of more than $10,000,000 and is assessed at an amount equal to one-fifth of the total value placed on all utility properties in the county. He also is prepared to cite the variations between assessments of Southern Pacific and Salt Lake railroad properties in the county. The railroads are the only utilities that

DEMOCRATS FINISH PLANS FOR RALLY AUGUST 24

A reunited democratic party met last night at Green Cat cafe to complete plans for the "On With Roosevelt" barbecue and rally to be held August 24 at Hamilton Cotton's ranch in San Clemente.

Democrats from Riverside, San Bernardino, San Diego and Los Angeles met with Orange county bourgeois to hear plans for the day discussed, and to pledge their cooperation in staging the opening rally of the 1936 presidential campaign in California.

Paul Witmer, general chairman in charge of arrangements, presided at the dinner meeting and announced that already 3615 tickets have been placed in the hands of loyal party members. He predicted that before the end of the week the entire quota of 4000 tickets would be sold.

Women's Chief Named

Mrs. Frank Harwood of Santa Ana was elected chairman of the women's committee to cooperate in plans for the event and announced that she would select other members of her committee immediately. Mrs. R. F. Palmgren was named secretary-treasurer of the women's committee.

The following additions were made to committee appointments for the purpose of speeding plans for the barbecue: Dan O'Hanlon

P.T.A. HEADS BEGIN SCHOOL FOREST SETUP

School bells rang for 50 executives of Santa Ana Parent-Teacher associations today who attended conferences and lectures at the annual school of instruction held at the educational building of the First Christian church.

Preceding the group conferences, a business meeting was held at which Mrs. John J. Mills, president of the Santa Ana Council of Parents and Teachers, presided.

Mrs. M. W. Hollingsworth made the report of the budget committee, and Mrs. Dale Elliott, treasurer, gave the auditor's report. The Rev. W. S. Buchanan gave the invocation. In the absence of Mrs. E. H. Elmsner, Mrs. Neal Beisel served as secretary.

Introduction of newly-appointed chairmen included presentation of Mrs. Hollingsworth's magazine; Mrs. G. Emmett Raitt, publicity; Mrs. Wells Brown, program; the Rev. Mr. Buchanan, character education; Mrs. Mary B. Robertson, exceptional child; and Mrs. Hugh Whisenand, student welfare.

Mrs. W. T. Kirven, president of fourth district, greeted the assembly, challenging them to their part in activities of the district sale, and September 19 was announced as the date of the district meeting to be held at the Buena Park school, when a district school of instruction will be held.

Mrs. W. A. Price, editor of the California Parent-Teacher magazine, was guest speaker at the luncheon.

Other honored guests of the day were Mrs. H. C. Drown, district program chairman; Mrs. Oliver Wickersheim of Orange, district membership chairman; Mrs. C. W. Eggleston, district magazine chairman; Mrs. Guy Belcher, vice president of district; Mrs. R. T. Goodhue of Glendale, state publicity chairman; Mrs. H. V. Henry of Glendale, state program chairman.

Conferences were conducted on magazines by Mrs. Price, assisted by Mrs. Hollingsworth; publicity by Mrs. Goodhue, assisted by Mrs. Wickersheim; membership by Mrs. Givens, and program by Mrs. H. C. Drown, assisted by Mrs. Wells Brown.

TELL STAND ON LAND ZONING

In a letter read to the county board of supervisors today, R. D. Flaherty, secretary of the Orange county farm bureau, outlined that organization's stand relative to the proposed land use ordinance of the county planning commission.

Three points were brought out in the letter as follows: The farm bureau is not advocating such an ordinance but is seeking to protect agricultural interests; the farm bureau is of the opinion that the control should be in the board of supervisors and that extra precautions should be taken to insure notice of hearings; that future appointments to the planning commission should be from rural districts, and unless this principle is recognized the farm bureau will withhold approval.

GREEK JURIST NAMED REFEREE FOR PARLEY

GENEVA, Aug. 6. (AP)—Nicholas Politis, Greek jurist, was favored generally today to assume the post of umpire on the Greek-Ethiopian conciliation commission.

The two Ethiopian representatives, Prof. Pitman Benjamin Potter of the United States and Dr. Albert G. de La Pradelle of France, were understood to approve selection of the former Greek minister to Paris.

An authoritative source disclosed that the governments of England, France and Italy also approve.

WPA LEADERS RE-NAMES HELPERS

Dan Mulherron announced today appointment of nine department heads in the Works Progress administration of which he is in charge for Orange county. All the appointees are now working for the State Emergency Relief administration and will not be replaced, according to Terrence Halloran, SERA administrator. The WPA replaces the SERA except for direct relief.

Harry Wetherell of Santa Ana was named local superintendent of project accounting and control. He is now SERA auditor. Harry Parker, Fullerton, of the SERA engineering department, will be construction engineer; Fred Jayne of this city will head the professional, technical and women workers division, a position he now holds with SERA. John Seerest, Santa Ana, of the SERA placement division, will be deputy superintendent of labor management.

Ray LaFont, of the SERA time-keeping division, will be head of the labor inventory department. He resides at Anaheim. Tony Comito, Santa Ana, now in charge of health and safety insurance for the SERA, will be in charge of similar work for the WPA. Sam Long of Tustin, head of the SERA timekeeping division, will have the same position with the WPA. Carl Lindman, Barber City, will be paymaster. He is doing similar work for the SERA. Larry Detweiler, Santa Ana, junior statistical clerk for the SERA, will fill the same post for the WPA.

Mr. Mulherron said that the WPA would start moving this afternoon into its new quarters on the top floor of the Ramona building. It will be open for business there tomorrow and ready to receive new project applications.

RETAIL UNIT WILL MEET TOMORROW

A meeting of the retail division of the Santa Ana chamber of commerce will be held at 9 a. m. Wednesday in the chamber of commerce headquarters in the courthouse annex. J. H. Bell is chairman of the retail division. The subject to be discussed at the meeting is "Matters of Merchandising."

MORE ABOUT TAX BILL

mittee, Senators LaFollette (Prog. Wis.), and Guffey (D., Pa.), were present as the official began testifying. LaFollette wants to amend the house bill to increase income taxes in the lower as well as the higher brackets.

He holds this would bring in more revenue than the $250,000,000 to $270,000,000 house leaders have estimated their measure would produce.

As evidence of a trend toward concentration of wealth, Jackson testified that only 1,747,740 persons reported taxable incomes in 1933, a decline of 3.8 per cent, while those reporting taxable incomes of $1,000,000 or more increased from 20 to 50 per cent.

Rebutting the contention that large wealth is dissipated in three generations, the witness said "it is not true of large invested fortunes under present conditions."

FEDERAL BANK ON CASH PLAN

The Federal Land bank has gone back to a cash basis. Hereafter all land bank and commissioner loans to farmers will be made in money, instead of primarily in bonds of the Federal Farm Mortgage corporation, as they have been made since March 26, 1934. News of this development was received here today by C. A. Palmer, manager of the Orange County National Farm Loan association.

Under the former system, creditors received bonds, which in many cases were sold because they commanded a premium. This system was used to spread the bonds throughout the country. This has now been accomplished. The new cash basis will apply in all the 11 districts of the Farm Credit administration.

COUNTY WAIVES CLAIM TO MONEY PAID INJURED HELP

In a resolution adopted by the board of supervisors today, the county waived any claim against George Graupensperger, former deputy sheriff, for the approximately $1200 paid him under the workmen's compensation act and expended for hospital and medical attendance.

Mr. Graupensperger lost the sight of both eyes more than a year ago when the automobile in which he was riding was involved in a collision with a truck of the Wilshire oil company.

Waiver of any claims against Mr. Graupensperger by the county was a part of a settlement effected out of court by the former bailiff and the oil company which he had sued for $33,000. O. A. Jacobs, attorney for Mr. Graupensperger, said the damage action was compromised for $10,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wolters of 505½ Cypress street are home from a vacation trip to Forest Home.

Miss Ellen Selover, bookkeeper at the Dickey Furniture company, is vacationing this week at Crestline. During her absence, Mrs. Roy Hershey is replacing her.

Mrs. Russell Reagan and her small baby are spending a short while at the home of Mrs. Reagan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Slabaugh of 407 West Santa Clara.

Miss Jesslyn Hair, a Zeta Tau Alpha sorority sister of Miss Mary Bell, was a guest yesterday at the Bell home, 1824 North Ross street.

In the afternoon both girls went to Balboa to visit friends there. Miss Hair is summing at Sunset Beach.

George Rodgers of Balboa and Los Angeles was a business visitor in Santa Ana today.

Harbor development work was the matter that brought R. L. Patterson, Newport Beach city engineer, to Santa Ana today.

Harry Welch, secretary of the Newport Harbor chamber of commerce, spent a portion of the day in Santa Ana.

Townsend Clubs

Townsend club No. 12 will meet in the community building of the Diamond school in Santa Ana gardens at 7:30 o'clock this evening. The speaker will be Walter S. Hawk of Orange.

DEAUVILLE QUEEN

We've always heard that the acme of French beauty was to be found at that popular and expensive watering place, Deauville, and after seeing Mlle. Jenny Hoquet, who was selected as the prize bathing beauty there, we are more anxious than ever to see whether there are any more Mlle Hoquets around.

City Council Does In Brief

The city council last night approved plans for changes in the city hall which will cost $4,562.40. The chief revision will be to move the council chambers from the west to the east side of the third floor, where it will be possible to eliminate six columns which otherwise would obstruct the room.

A letter was received from the National guard company here, thanking the city for a $200 appropriation to help defray expenses in going to the annual encampment near Santa Maria.

The auxiliary of the American Legion sent the council a letter offering assistance in the city's fiftieth anniversary celebration next year.

Councilmen Ernest Layton and Joseph P. Smith, with City Auditor Lloyd Banks, were made a committee with power to act on a request from the Newport harbor chamber of commerce that the city provide a $15 trophy for Orange county day August 27 at the international star boat races at Newport Beach.

Fred C. Buckley was appointed a special police officer to serve without pay. Mr. Buckley works at a local theater.

Councilman Plummer Bruns, Dr. E. E. Frisby of the health department and Police Chief Floyd W. Howard were appointed as a committee with power to act on a petition of the Mexican patriotic committee headed by E. Rodriguez, asking permission to conduct a tent show here for six days.

Applications of Floyd Emmett and Rhea O. Manley for permission to operate a dance hall at Fourth and Van Ness streets were taken under advisement. Councilmen Bruns and Smith and Police Chief Howard were appointed to investigate the situation.

The council granted permission to the Santa Ana University of Beauty Culture and to Dr. Bauer to hang electric signs at 409½ North Main street and 520 South Main street, respectively.

A petition signed by 11 photographers, asking that there be no changes in the license ordinance affecting photographers, was received, but no action was taken. Second reading of an ordinance amending photographers' ordinance was held over until the next meeting August 19.

Action on the application of Frank Ey for permission to erect a service station at Fifth and Shelton streets was deferred. Mr. Ey was requested to provide detailed plans for the project.

The council ordered property at First and Garfield streets posted for special use after John Anselmina had applied for a permit to erect a service station there. Mr. Anselmina submitted plans for the building he hopes to erect.

The report of the health department for the past month was received and referred to the finance committee by the council.

The $25,000 bond of Herbert Klotzly, appointed assistant city treasurer to succeed Dean Campbell, resigned, was received by the council last night, approved by

Happy Birthday

The Journal wishes a happy birthday anniversary today to the following:

MRS. OTTO F. BECKER, 129 C street, Tustin.

MARIE STEELE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Steele, 933 South Main street, Santa Ana.

LEAVITT DALEY, 715 Spurgeon street, Santa Ana.

Mayor Fred Rowland and filed with City Clerk Ed Vegely.

Bids for city advertising were received by the council from the Register Publishing company, whose price was 45 cents per column inch, and the Orange County Reporter, legal publication, whose offer was 30 cents per inch.

Bids for city printing, including a detailed schedule of prices which were the same as those for last year, were received by the council from the Orange County Printers association, including all local commercial printers.

The council granted Reuben Santee, 923½ East Chestnut street, a license to operate a taxi.

George Boyd, motorcycle officer, was re-employed by the council last night. Mr. Boyd has been in Bakersfield for a number of months.

City Engineer J. L. McBride reported to the council that several of the city's S.E.R.A. projects have been submitted to the Works Progress administration. These include the Santiago creek parkway, a rat extermination project and a group of projects providing work for draughtsmen, stenographers and office workers.

The council granted the petition of H. Tauchiya for authority to erect a flower shelter at 1322 South Main street and granted the request of J. A. Friend for permission to erect a poultry yard at 2228 South Towner street. Action was taken on recommendation of the planning commission.

On recommendation of the planning commission the council granted the request of Shipkey and Pearson for permission to erect a service station at Tenth and Broadway. The applicants plan a $6000 or $7000 building.

A joint meeting of a council committee and one from the planning commission, to be held before August 19, was ordered in the matter of the application of Dr. Robert S. Wade for permission to erect an office building at Eighth and Bush streets. The planning commission twice has recommended denial of the request. Councilmen Ernest Layton, Joseph Smith and William Penn will represent the council at the session.

The council adopted a revision in the building ordinance, reducing plastering permit fees from one cent to one-half cent per square yard.

The committee headed by T. E. Stephenson which arranged the program for the cornerstone ceremonies held last Tuesday at the new city hall was extended a vote of thanks by the council.

Monthly reports were received from the building inspector, plumbing and electrical inspectors and the city judge. Plumbing inspector H. O. Crowe collected fees totaling $127.75. Building Inspector S. I. Preble collected $187.75. Electrician W. O. Packard collected $147.75, and City Judge J. G. Mitchell collected $1769.36 in fines during the month.

The council adopted the budget for the ensuing fiscal year, amounting to $536,254, on the recommendation of City Auditor Lloyd Banks. The budget still may be changed, if deemed necessary, before the tax rate is fixed. This is ordinarily done in the first week of September.

Appointments by Mayor Rowland for the combined forestry board and park commission were approved by the council. The board will consist of A. H. Allen, Oliver Halsell, J. R. Bruff, Mrs. Ruth Forgy, E. M. Hall, and ex-officio members, Councilmen Ernest Layton and City Engineer J. L. McBride.

Because two members appointed to the forestry board and park commission are now members of the city planning commission, Mayor Rowland and the council appointed Milburn Harvey and planning commission. They will replace Mrs. Ruth Forgy and A. H. Allen.

COURT BRIEFS

Petition to probate the will of the late Robert Francis Parker of Fullerton has been filed in superior court by Virgil Malcolm Parker and Leslie Floyd Parker, Riverside, sons of the late Mr. Parker and co-executors of the estate. The petition lists the estate as worth more than $10,000. In his will Mr. Parker instructed that his share in the estate of a brother, now being probated in Riverside county, shall be divided between his four children, and said that provisions already had been made for his widow, Mrs. Perle Parker.

POLICE REPORTS

Two lost children reported to be at Camille and Birch streets. When officers arrived, no trace of them could be found.
Four arrested on bench warrants issued by Judge Mitchell on charges of failure to pay fines.
A museum dedicated to the herring is to be opened at Emden, Germany, the old North sea port where the German herring fishing industry centers.

BALBOA ISLAND SEA WALL PLAN APPROVED BY NEWPORT COUNCIL

$200,000 IS ESTIMATED EXPENSE

Job May Proceed Under 1915 Bond Act, City Attorney Reports

NEWPORT BEACH.—Property owners and residents of Balboa Island were rejoicing today as the result of the city council's action last night in authorizing Mayor Hermann Hilmer to file an official application for federal aid for construction of a $200,000 sea wall around the island. The action followed a report by City Attorney Rolland Thompson that building of the bulkhead could be accomplished under provisions of the 1915 bond act.

R. L. Patterson, city engineer, was instructed to outline final plans and specifications for the project and amount of assessment for each lot on the island. A hearing of property owners will be called soon to consider assessments. Dr. Howard W. Sengar, general chairman of the sea wall move, said.

As a result of a petition bearing 17 signatures of Newport Beach property owners and members of the Beach Preservation organization demanding action on the unsightly condition of the ocean front, the council filed an application for $500,000 with the WPA. The money would be used to level, grade, and clean the sand which has been pumped from the bay to the ocean front and for construction of 14 five-foot sidewalks from the board walk to the ocean. The petition stated that present condition of the beach tended to decrease value of property. The proposed work will include ocean front between Thirtieth and M streets.

Ask WPA Aid
Aid from the WPA will also be asked in rebuilding of Seashore drive from Thirtieth to Forty-third street, where it was washed out by high tides last November. Estimated cost would be $12,000. Total sum of these two projects amounts to $512,000. It is expected that the WPA will grant $800,000 of the total.

Mayor Hilmer was authorized to file application for WPA assistance in building a 12-foot concrete walk to replace the present board walk from Alvarado to Thirtieth streets on the ocean front.

Dumping of bilge water, garbage and other refuse from ships into the bay and ocean was vigorously protested by members of the Bay Island club. R. M. Brandt, secretary of the club, presented a petition asking the council to take drastic steps to keep waters of the bay free from pollution.

Crew to Clean Beach
Application was made for an SERRA crew to clean up the beach every week on the El Bazo tract. Transients visiting Balboa island will not be allowed to launch their boats from trailers because of the damage to sidewalks.

Harbor Master Tommy Bouchey was presented with a new 17-foot speedboat purchased from the South Coast Boat works for $1,273.42. The new craft has a top speed of 35 miles an hour and will be used for harbor patrol work. Contracts were executed for the purchase of a new squad car for the fire department, a new sedan for the police department, and a new runabout for the electrical division.

An ordinance providing for the tax moratorium now in effect in California was adopted. The council will meet as a board of equalization at 1 p. m., August 17.

BIRTHDAY PARTY HELD IN HOME AT GARDEN GROVE

GARDEN GROVE.—The first birthday anniversary of Gary Vernon King, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville King, was celebrated Saturday when his mother invited a group of friends to their home on East Stanford avenue. Mrs. Rollie Vinzant of Santa Ana assisted Mrs. King in serving. Gary received many gifts.

Present were his grandmother, Mrs. Vernon King, Mrs. Vinzant and son, Rollie Richard, of Santa Ana, Mrs. Robert Reed and daughter, Judy, of Newport, Mrs. Dorothy Brammer and daughter, Dianne, of Los Angeles, Mrs. J. C. Kraushaar and son, Jackie, and Mrs. Lowell Jaynes and son, Charles of Garden Grove.

NEW MAIL SERVICE AT BUENA PARK

BUENA PARK.—Further service to mail patrons was announced here by Postmaster Brenner, who said that on August 14 the rural route would be extended to include Western avenue to the west end of Walnut street; Western avenue to end of Mission street; the entire length of Darling street, from Franklin to Seventh street, east on Seventh to Indiana avenue to Commonwealth avenue; from there west on Commonwealth to Stanton, north to Second street and west on Second to Grand avenue.

Plan Picnic At Newport For Compton Orphans

NEWPORT BEACH.—Orphans and crippled children from the May H. Carson chapter of the D. A. R. of Compton will visit Newport Sunday, August 18, for their annual picnic outing. It was announced today by John M. Folley, who will be in charge of the affair. The group will meet at the foot of 18th street on the ocean front at 8:30 p. m. Fireworks will be under supervision of Fire Chief Frank W. Crocker. A picnic lunch will be served around a huge bonfire on the beach.

Brick Dust

By BRICK GAINES

Newport's biggest need this season is a water traffic cop. If you don't believe it, drag the family life preserver out of the mothballs some nice warm Sunday, rent a rowboat, and see for yourself.

Daring feats of skill are performed on the waters of Harry Welch's harbor each holiday by motor and sail-boaters from far and near. They go into their spins dizzily and all but tear off stanchions, poop-decks or whatever the well-dressed boat is wearing this year.

Besides, there's the thrill of swimmers, trying to crawl and float through the infested waters, beset not only by boats but by swerving aquaplaners who zoom along behind motorboats.

Add in a few mammoth dredgers and their attached pipelines, several islands of different sizes and a series of piers, and navigation on the bay affords a problem to make the average landlubber quail with fear.

Old-timers at Newport's harbor seem to thrive on it. Personally, I've always liked pingpong.

Abe Cone, a popular Anaheim business man, decided to take an aquaplaning trip on the bay. He invited lots of his friends to join in the fun. They brought their lunches and prepared for an invigorating day in the water.

Instead, they spent the day working on Abe's motorboat, which refused to start. Along about dark the motor sputtered and acted like it would run, but a flywheel or some other necessary gadget fell off, so the party was postponed until a more certain means of transportation can be found.

Nominated for the most beautiful view in the county: that from Lemon Heights, east of Santa Ana. That'll probably make a lot of Fullertonites angry, as their Hillcrest park offers a fine panorama of the surrounding territory and they're awfully proud of it. Residents of Corona Del Mar may raise a howl, too, as their view of the harbor is marvelous, but I'll still stick with the Lemon Heights location, from which one may look out over Santa Ana and the surrounding citrus groves.

Run up and take a look one of these summer evenings, and see if I'm not right.

Newspaper editors are human, after all.

You should have seen one jump when almost caught in front of an automobile the other day. I only hope Frank Rospaw, the Placentia scribe, doesn't know it was Brick Dust driving the machine that almost got him.

Some one has remarked that if all of the hitch-hikers found between Santa Ana and Tustin were laid end-to-end they would reach to San Diego. Seems like that would save them a lot of trouble.

Harold Lang, who coaches track at Fullerton High school and Junior college, is versatile, or has a dual personality, or something.

In the winter Harold teaches his athletes to break records. In the summer he teaches spraying

OIL MEN HAVE PLAN TRIP FOR H. B. MEETING

HUNTINGTON BEACH.—Uniting of all independent oil operators in the state was seen today with the definite purpose of establishing an equalized pro-ration agreement. A group of nearly 50 oil men of Southern California unanimously adopted this view at a special meeting held in the Huntington Beach city hall yesterday afternoon.

Signing of a voluntary pro-ration agreement which will become effective over the entire state when 95 per cent of independent dealers have capitulated is aim of the operators. Maintenance of a steady, profitable price structure is virtually assured with acceptance of this plan, leaders claim. L. P. St. Clair, president of the Union Oil company, and Neal H. Anderson, former state oil umpire, addressed the meeting. Illustrating the futility of battling each other, Mr. St. Clair pointed out that it was a question of the independents producing 100 barrels at 35 cents or 35 barrels at $1 a barrel.

Huntington Beach operators signified that they were ready to sign the voluntary agreement. A. M. Andersen, superintendent of the Holly Oil company and vice chairman of the statewide voluntary committee of seven, was in charge of the meeting. Another meeting was scheduled at 7:30 tomorrow night in the Shell company office in Long Beach.

MIDWAY CITY BRIDGE CLUB HAS ALL-DAY MEETING

MIDWAY CITY.—The Aloha bridge club of the Rebekah lodge, which was started recently. The morning was spent in quilting, a covered dish luncheon was served at noon, and bridge was played in the afternoon. Mrs. Bertha Schmidt held high score and Mrs. Nellie Murdy second high. Present were Mrs. Linda McDaniel, Mrs. Alice Hare, Mrs. Nellie Morgan, Mrs. Nellie Murdy, Mrs. Bertha Schmidt, Mrs. Maude Michel, and Mrs. Cordelia Slate. Mrs. Schmidt will be the hostess at the next meeting.

Mrs. Robert Keller is spending a few days with friends in Los Angeles. The Jolly Dozen bridge club was scheduled to meet today with Mrs. Robert Hazard at her home on First street.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Community church will be held at the Van Steenberg home, 300 Adams street, tomorrow evening.

The Needlecrafters, with their families, will picnic at Anaheim park tomorrow.

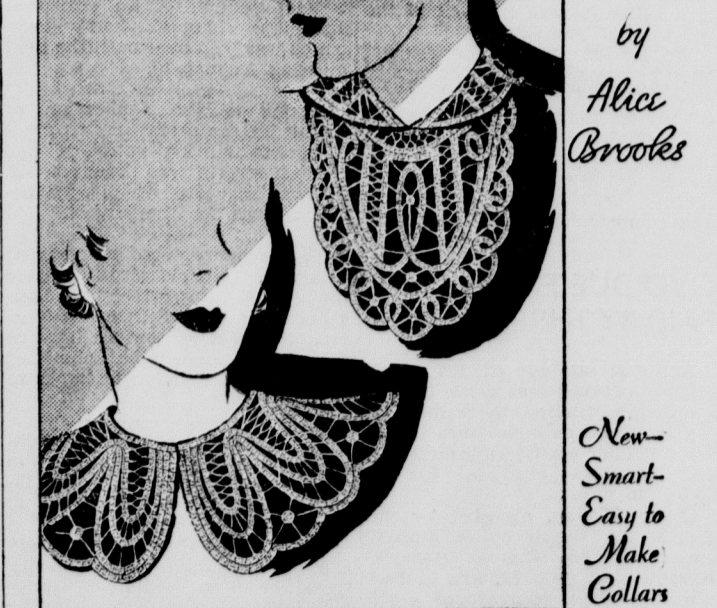

WESTMINSTER PASTOR RETURNS

WESTMINSTER.—Dr. John Klene, pastor of the Presbyterian church, who has been absent on account of ill health, occupied the pulpit Sunday morning, and was welcomed by many friends.

The Westminster Townsend club will hold their regular meeting Thursday at 7:30 p. m. at the Odd Fellows hall. The program will be a surprise and is in charge of the executive board.

M. S. Harder of Buhler, Kans., who is a summer student at U. S. C. in Los Angeles, spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orion Bebermeyer. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Bebermeyer took their guests to Uplands to attend the Mennonite conference. Miss Helen Reiton, who arrived from Shanghai, China, last week is also a house guest of the Bebermeyers.

Household Arts

The hand-chocheted glove is the high note of fashion this summer—without it your wardrobe is definitely lacking an accessory that can make the plainest clothes attractive. This glove—the hand is in a simple mesh with the cuff in an effective design that is quickly made—will be the envy of your friends. Aside from its beauty, it has the advantage of laundering so well that it will wear indefinitely. In pattern 5191 you will find detailed instructions for making the gloves shown in a small, medium and large size (all in one pattern); material requirements; illustrations of the gloves and of all stitches used. To obtain this pattern send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to The Santa Ana Journal Household Arts Dept., 117 E. Fifth St., Santa Ana, Calif.

ORANGE MAN BUYS OXEN BEACH CASINO IS APPROVED

Senator Olsen To Speak At Rally At H. B.

HUNTINGTON BEACH.—State Senator Cuthbert C. Olsen, chairman of the senate investigating committee in the Huntington Beach tideland oil controversy, will address a democratic rally from the grand stand on the beach here next Sunday at 2:30 p. m. It was announced today.

Democrats from all Southern California will gather to hear Senator Olsen. A public address system has been arranged, and several musical numbers and preliminary speakers will be included in the program.

BOARD SELECTS NEW TEACHERS

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO.—Four members of the school board met at the high school last night for the purpose of selecting a substitute for Stanley Gould, whose contract was cancelled at the last meeting by a vote of two to one, two members not voting. Stanley Stanberry, principal of the high school, attended the meeting in an advisory capacity.

Several applicants for the vacant position, as well as for a night school teacher and a librarian, were interviewed. Elizabeth Gillen was chosen for the position of librarian and secretary for 10 months.

Charlie Dean, famous one-time football player at U. S. C., where under "Gloomy Gus" Henderson he became the first all-American fullback-captain, was elected as assistant and teacher of the night school.

Ezra Hollister was employed as an instructor in mathematics to replace Stanley Gould, who is now vacationing in the north. The budget of $31,750 was adopted as outlined at the last meeting.

ORANGE LODGE HAS SESSION

ORANGE.—Ruby Rebekah lodge met last night, following a 6:30 o'clock pot-luck dinner in the I. O. O. F. hall. Mrs. Elizabeth Rodieck was installed as chaplain, as she was visiting relatives in the East at the regular installation service.

Tom and Jerry, two radio entertainers, gave a musical program and games of cards closed the entertainment.

LAGUNA PASTOR GIVES SERMON AT WINTERSBURG

WINTERSBURG.—The Rev. W. H. White, a retired pastor from Laguna Beach, conducted the morning service at the Community M. E. church Sunday in the absence of the pastor, the Rev. Joseph Thompson.

The evening service was in charge of various foreign groups of the church. An interesting program was presented by the Misses Andrea Gardner, Alice Slater, Pauline Applebury, Florence Ray Moore and Juanita Troop, who recently returned from a week at the Queen Esther camp at Idyllwild.

The August meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of the M. E. church will be held at the home of Mrs. Albert Ruoff soon. Girls of the Queen Esther society will give the program. The returns from the tea, which will be served out-of-doors by Mrs. Ruoff, will be given to the Queen Esther society to assist them in carrying on their work.

The Oceanview Townsend club will give an ice cream social on the grounds of the Oceanview school this evening. A program is being planned by the social committee of the club.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Stesanavizzi entertained their grandson and granddaughter, Wilmer and Norma Buck, and two young friends from Santa Ana on Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church was to meet at the home of Mrs. Allen Young, on Huntington Beach boulevard this afternoon.

NIECE VISITS AT EL MODENA HOME

EL MODENA.—Miss Claire Davis, niece of Mrs. Luther Barnett, whose home is in San Antonio, Tex., is spending a short time here. She stopped en route to her home from attending the national convention of Business and Professional Women at Seattle, Wash.

Mrs. Earl Owens and Miss Claire Davis spent the week-end at the San Diego exposition.

ORANGE.—Purchase of two yoke of oxen was announced yesterday by Ed Stinson, Orange horse fancier. At the same time Mr. Stinson purchased eight Belgian draft horses, all to be used for exhibition purposes.

The oxen are well broken, and have been used in logging operations in Vermont. They will be shipped to Stockton Tuesday with 30 Belgian horses to be shown by Mr. Stinson at the stock show. At the Sacramento State fair, 16 of his matched Belgian sorrels will race on the full run in the arena, drawing a large farm wagon.

These horses have been training through the winter, and will provide a thrill to all seeing them. This team will also be shown in the million-dollar stock show which will feature the fair. Driving will be done by Mr. Stinson and his two sons. This will be the first time that oxen have ever been exhibited at the California fair.

LEADERS MEET AT SAN CLEMENTE STATE PARK CAMP

SAN CLEMENTE.—Chosen because of its location and the climatic conditions, the San Clemente state park camp was the scene of a meeting of camp commanders, educational advisors and technical service men on Saturday. Major L. A. Walton, commander of the district, commended members of the local camp on its appearance.

Guy L. Fleming, district superintendent, Dan R. Hull, procurement officer and District Inspectors P. T. Primm and Louis Brandt accompanied Mr. Pesonen from headquarters in Washington on a visit to the state park camp recently.

Celebrating the first anniversary of the camp, members held a dance at the Men's club in San Clemente recently.

John A. Thompson, surveying

HUNTINGTON BEACH.—Definite plans and specifications for construction of a $34,000 dancing casino and open-air band pavilion on the ocean front here were accepted at last night's meeting of the city council. Mayor Thomas B. Talbert was authorized to file application for federal aid.

The structure will be two stories high and will be built on the east side of the municipal pier on city-owned land. It will be of modernistic architectural design with an octagonal-shaped floor covering 7000 square feet.

Tango games were barred from the city as the council voted 3-2 against granting a license to R. A. Tonneson of Redondo Beach. Anthony Tovat, Willis H. Warner, and Leland S. Channess voted no, and Mayor Talbert and John H. Marion yes. Leonard Obarr, Cecylie Oliver, C. W. Patrick, Jack Africa, W. R. Osborn and E. B. Stevens all spoke in favor of granting the license.

Plan Pistol Range
Expenditure of $350 for a new 25-yard pistol range was voted. The building will be located in Lake Street park near the Boy Scout cabin. It will be 14 by 20 feet and will be guarded by a seven-foot fence. Estimates were prepared by the Rev. Luther A. Arthur, pistol instructor, and Engineer Overmyer.

Added revenue for the treasury was anticipated with leasing of a portion of the city's 44-acre tract in the eastern flats to the Dunlap Oil company. The lease specifies that two wells will be drilled and the city of Huntington Beach will receive one-sixth royalty. More than $100 per month income is expected, Councilman Marion said. The council will meet as a board of equalization next Monday at 7:30 p. m. for tax assessment hearings.

Wrestling hangover: If you happen to be looking for any of your friends these Monday evenings, jam your way into the Orange county athletic club arena on highway 101 between Santa Ana and Anaheim. You'll most likely find them there.

Just now it is the thing to do to have a ringside seat at the wrestling emporium. The thing has even reached the stage where you might see yourself in the moon pichters if you were among those present last evening.

High-powered sound and movie equipment filmed last night's main event tussle between Champion Vincent Lopez and Nick Lutze. Promoter Sam Sampson says they're going to be shown at local theaters, too.

Glancing around last night, for instance, we spotted Judge James Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Kennedy, the golfers, and their accented golfing son, Don, among the watchers. Other golfers were there too, Caddy-master Burnett Lane, who is a regular fan, Eddie Holmes, Don Currie and Walter Pixley.

Relieving an otherwise violent evening, we got three nice laughs out of the proceedings:

A careless customer left his sedan parked on the train tracks in his rush to get a seat and end up transportation while he had to be paged to go and move his vehicle so that the choo-choo might proceed.

Wrestler Cy Williams emitted a rare bit of reasoning when he was reprimanded for pulling Sergei Kalmikoff's dark brown whiskers. "If he don't want 'em pulled," he growled ungrammatically, "let him take 'em off." The referee couldn't answer that one.

Only a few in the press row heard the best chuckle of the evening. A "first time" female fan, viewing a battery of inverted buckets that had been strung above the ring and equipped with lights to aid the moviemen, confided to a companion: "I understand those buckets are to catch the blood!"

Next to us in the press row sat one whom we learned was one of Santa Ana junior college's grid greats not so long ago. He was Ed Adams, one-time all-Southern California end in junior college football ranks and just now coach at Corvallis, Ore. high school. His physique lent glamour to the tales of Santa Ana football prowess we have heard constantly since our arrival here this spring.

DOTS AND DASHES IN SPORTS DEPT.

Wild Bill Hoolahan might give someone a clue on that Dr. Ralph Wagner extension plot. Bill trained at the doctor's ranch when he tried to start a boxing career a few months ago... and he knows the doctor and his friends as well as most people. The Huntington Beach News recently baited the night ball page there by slamming right on the nose of this writer's purely personal views of the coming Santa Ana-Huntington Beach championship series... a very subtle heading said: "Dimming Stars Fear Oiler in Playoff," but it wasn't fair... the Stars are concerned but certainly aren't frightened.

What's become of: Night racing for the local greyhounds?

Proposed motorbike racing? The "Saints-to-play-in-Honolulu" rumor?

PICKED UP AT THE CITY LEAGUE TILT

Few of the Elks and 20-30's knew it last night, but Vic Ruddy, manager of the Anaheim club of the National Night Ball league, was in the municipal bowl stands scouting for new talent. Armand Hanson, southpaw pitcher for the Elks, has been asked to play for an Anaheim city team in the Southern California softball tourney in Los Angeles next month. The Elks, noted for their tight fielding, booted the ball around pathetically in the fourth while the 20-30's pushed across four runs.

Why doesn't some National league manager take a look at Bob Schwarm of the Elks and Jeff Jefferson of the 20-30's? Schwarm, who topped the 20-30's league hitting with a .524 average, is no second-baseman; the position he now attempts to play—but he could fit into the outfield. Jefferson, a rangy kid who stands on the left side, takes a beautiful cut, and usually gives the ball a speedy ride when he connects. Umpire Bill Gibbs called Schwarm out at third on Lettfielder Mitchell's throw-in during a fifth-inning rally by the Elks, but most of the fans thought Schwarm was safe by at least a foot. Mickey Walther, former Orange football star, hit three singles and drew a walk for the 20-30's... the championship tussle attracted a better crowd at a nominal admission charge than the free games did during the regular season.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

By the Associated Press
HANK LEIBER and DICK BARTELL, Giants—Hank drove in 3 runs, Dick 2, one with homer, to beat Dodgers 5-4.

AL HOLLINGSWORTH and DON BRENNAN, Reds—Between them held Cubs to single run and eight hits, dropping Chicago four games behind Giants.

RALPH WINEGARNER and EARL AVERILL, Indians—Made happy Steve O'Neill's debut.

National leaguers, counting these all-star affairs and world series tilts. Three of his blows were virtual game-winners.

20-30's Down Elks in First Titular Softball Game, 10-9

FIRST PRO GRID TWINS

MILT and WALT SINGER, center and end on the strong Syracuse university football team last fall, will be the first twins in professional football this fall when they line up with the New York Giants. The grid Giants already owned the first brother act in the pro league in Coach Steve Owen and Tackle Bill Owen.

EARLY RALLY BY SERVICE NINE WINS

Jefferson, Mitchell And Garlock Rap Homers During Slugfest

Paced by Larry Mitchell, Mickey Walker and Jeff Jefferson, who came through when his meant runs, Santa Ana's 20-30's got off to an auspicious start in the City Night Ball league's championship series with a 10-9 count over the Elks at the Bowl last night.

The second game of the three-out-of-five series will be played Thursday.

Mitchell, dark-haired leftfielder, drove a two-bagger into center with the bases bulging in the third for three runs, after Howard Melvin had scored on the forced walk. The early part of the four-run rally was due to costly errors by the Elks' infield.

The 20-30's were never headed after their third-inning spurge. They added two runs in the fifth. In the last half of the same stanza Wayne Garlock of the Elks blasted a homer into right-center with Dave Styring on to bring his teammates within a run of the winners, 6-5.

Mitchell lifted a hot liner over short, the ball rolling under the left-field stands for a home run with Johnny Lutz on second, and first-baseman Jefferson clouted another homer in the same place for three 20-30 runs in the seventh.

LeRoy Levens cracked a triple, scored on an error; and Hanson scored an unearned run for the Elks, who went into the ninth trailing 10-7. Bob Schwarm hit his third single of the evening, and Shortstop Garlock belted a liner which Melvin muffed right field for two runs after two were away. Catcher Herb Bove grounded out to the pitcher's box to end the game.

Armand Hanson, southpaw pitcher, mowed down 10 of the 20-30's on strike-outs, but walked six. Joe Cornelius of the service club fanned nine. Both were hit freely.

Vincent Lopez Again Repulses Nick Lutze ELBOW BLOW GIVES EDGE TO CHAMP

Zharias Steals Verdict From Umberto; Sellout Crowd Sees Program

By FRANK ROGERS

When the boys billed last night's Nick Lutze-Vincent Lopez battle as a finish affair they knew what they were doing. After the most gruelling battle in local mat history Lopez emerged a very weary winner over the former Venice lifeguard thanks to that old standby—the elbow smash.

End of the first of two falls won by Champion Lopez found both lads on the crumbly brink of peaceful unconsciousness. Lutze, was in fact, prone and cooling rapidly. Lopez was so befogged by the terrific climax that lead up to the first flop that he tackled Referee Wee Mickey MacAllister in his semi-delirium.

Crowd Sees Tussle
The Orange county athletic club's second straight sellout crowd saw the spectacular rematch that was very similar to an engagement fulfilled by the two boys here last Monday night. As before, Lopez, recognized in California and one or two other places as the best of the heavyweights, was lucky to win.

Both falls were won by Lopez with his celebrated elbow smash—the first decision taking 40 min. and 10 secs. and the second but 10 secs. Champion Lopez ended the battle when he charged and Lutze was left in his corner, crashed his right elbow sharply to the jaw and sent the already weakened challenger down in a heap in the corner and unable to continue.

Lopez continued blithely on his way as a most unpopular champion when he ran the gamut of his wrestling tricks on Lutze without once making that gentleman say kammerad. Climax of Lopez's futile if punishing efforts came when Lutze snapped out of the dreaded Indian death tie, a rare feat—and nearly pinned the Mexico City hero with a split. Lopez crawled to the ropes just in time.

Breaks Hammer Lock
His right arm rendered useless by Lopez's body, Lutze could not out loose with his most effective weapon until late in the going. Lutze, for the second time in the bout, broke one of Lopez's marathon hammer locks and then started a slugging beat that ended in his downfall.

He clipped the champion three or four times and sent him crashing to the floor, but Lopez had enough left to get up and out-punch the Venice lad. Both boys staggered about in a deep fog but Lopez was the steadier of the two and gripped a feeble body press to take the fall after taking Lutze's last ounce of strength with a well measured forearm smash.

Always the obstinate fellow, Lutze grimly refused to give in under the most brutal of holds arranged by the champ. Only outraged emotion of this sphinx-like body was a long series of grunts and a couple of buckets of sweat.

Promoter Sam Sampson inverted the supporting card and put the semi-welter, in which George (Cry Baby) Zharias won an unpopular decision over Juan Umberto, on first. The "Crying Greek from Cripple Creek" spent most of his time crabbing and taking a stack of punishment from the Argentine grappler. He won two only fall with a chin lock in 22 min. 20 secs. getting away with a lot of sub-rosa straining in accomplishing his end.

Cy Williams stomped on the tender foot of Sergi (Watch Out For My Corns) Kalmikoff and followed up with a body press to lick the bearded Russian in 10 min. 24 secs. Kalmikoff picked up his injured foot to pet it and Williams promptly floored him with an elbow crash to the face.

Harry Ekizian continued his impressive demonstration to the effect that he is not a wrestler by losing a farcical struggle in 7 min. 21 secs. to Bill Hoolahan. The Irish hero, who now gets the largest hand of any rasser appearing here, had a tough time making a show of it before time making a show of his fabled faga balah flip. Faga balah is Irish for clear the way.

Brothers Di Maggio Head Prospects

Quality, not quantity, is the watchword in the Pacific Coast league this season as a small but classy group of players fights for recognition as potential big leaguers. Joe Di Maggio of the Seals is earmarked for the Yankees, and Brother Vince of Hollywood is out to get a similar chance. Bobby Doerr, fancy Hollywood second baseman, at 18 is the baby of the crop. Gene Lillard, home-run-hitting third sacker, is Los Angeles' contribution.

Jacobs Happy At Chance To Meet Mrs. Moody Again

NEW YORK, Aug. 6. (P)—Helen Jacobs returned from abroad today and expressed delight when informed she probably would meet Mrs. Helen Wills Moody in the national tennis championships starting at Forest Hills August 29.

With six members of the British Wightman cup team as travelling companions, Miss Jacobs, holder of the United States singles crown for the last three years, returned on the liner Majestic. It was evident she was looking forward eagerly to another encounter with her bitterest tennis rival.

IRVINE, BREA ARE UPSET

Upsets by Huntington Beach and Fullerton shocked the County Night Ball league last night, and left three teams tied in the race for second-half laurels.

Al Colman held the hard-hitting Irvine players to one hit in the most surprising reversal at Fullerton. Wilson Seacord of Irvine received poor support, errors accounting for four of Fullerton's seven runs.

Huntington Beach clubbed its way into the conference running with a 4-1 decision over Brea's first-half champions; Olive remained a threat by shutting out Placentia, 2-0, while Lyle Morse struck out 19, and San Juan Capistrano won after a scare from Garden Grove, 8-7, with Roy Stout, the ex-Fullerton chucker, making his first appearance with the Grove nine.

NEW JOB FOR WALTER? Johnson May Go to Minors

By ANDY CLARKE
Associated Press Sports Writer

Walter Johnson, having doffed his managerial job, is retiring to his Maryland farm, but there are some who predict he eventually may pilot a minor league club.

For more than 20 years he baffled batters with a ball that came down the alley with velocity something akin to a bullet.

The American league bestowed on him its highest award, the distinguished cross of baseball, a maltese cross studded with 20 diamonds.

CHOICE FOOTBALL TALENT WILL JOIN 1935 DONS

Santa Ana Junior college's 1935 football season will be another banner one if most of county high schools contribute as much choice talent as Garden Grove will send to the Dons when Coach Bill Cook's grid practice early next month.

Walt Hickman, burly fullback, who should make all-conference again, tips the scales at 190 pounds, and is in fine condition after a hard summer's work on his father's farm. His success under Coach Cook last fall has attracted other star athletes at Garden Grove. Here are a few planning to enroll at the Don hacienda:

John Lohmhart, 180-pound blocking halfback, considered Garden Grove's prize catch two seasons ago. He has been out of school a year. Stands 5 ft. 11 in.

Sam Bragg, all-Orange County Prep league center, another 180-pounder.

Jack Wilson, 6 ft. 2 in. end, described as an equal to Fullerton's sensational Bert Kidd in punting. Wilson, who formerly attended Franklin high school in Los Angeles, has booted several past 70 yards in league games, and has reached as high as 85 in practice.

LOUIS-'KING' MAY DRAW $200,000

Chicago Fight Tomorrow Night Is Taking Well With Cash Customers

By CHARLES DUNKLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—A gate that may reach $200,000 was in prospect today for the heavy-weight fight at Comiskey park tomorrow night between Joe Louis, Detroit's knockout sensation, and King Levinsky, the glorified ex-fish peddler.

When the box office traffic was opened today, Promoter Joe Foley announced $10,000 was already in the strongbox. He predicted another $100,000 would come rolling in before the walloping Chicagoan and the Detroit Negro started throwing punches.

If Promoter Foley is right in his predictions, Louis, just 21 years old, and yet to have his first shave, will earn $60,000 with his fists. Louis, who quit work in a Detroit automobile plant a year ago to receive $50 for his first fight, has been guaranteed 30 per cent of the receipts, with 20 per cent going to the Kingfish.

While the fans were storming the box offices, the calmest were the two fighters themselves. Louis, weighing 194 pounds, a bit lighter than he expected to be, was resting at the summer home of one of his managers, Julian Black, near St. Joseph, Mich. He will remain there, doing nothing more than a light exercise, until time to return to Chicago tomorrow noon, for the weighing in program.

Levinsky, weighs 198. After taking a King walk and a bit of light exercise, he planned to leave his camp at Round Lake, Ill., late this afternoon.

Levinsky, the lightest he has been in five years, is completely satisfied with his physical condition and believes he will win. However, there was an attitude of "we hope he'll win" around the Kingfish's training camp.

LE MON GIVEN GOOD RIVAL

Fight fans are looking forward to Thursday night's main event between Bad Holzhauser, Long Beach's new sensation, and Lupe Le Mon of Fullerton at the Orange county athletic club arena on highway 101.

Holzhauser, who carries a punch in both fists, knocked out Jack Walbridge of Compton last week, and is touted as a first-class opponent for the popular Le Mon. Promoter Sam Sampson has secured an Italian bantamweight, Ray Coster of Compton, to face Don Benzer of Anaheim in the special event. Tomahawk Sanchez of Westminster and Rudy Meyers are paired in the semi-wrap.

Joe Rodgers Sends Neva to Mound; Urbine Not to Join Locals Yet

Huntington Beach and Santa Ana, keenest of nightball rivals, mix at the Municipal bowl tonight in a one-game preview to the championship series they will play in September for the National league title. The game is billed for 8:15.

On the firing line will be Jimmy Coates, Santa Ana pitching star, who has been held back by an injured finger for two weeks; and Louie Neva, burly Russian who Huntington Beach fans believe is the league's greatest chucker.

These friendly enemies match their skill for the fifth time tonight. Each has defeated the other twice.

Flery Joe Rodgers' Oilers, who have the second-half title "in the bag," have yet to whip Tom Denney's Stars at the Sixth and Flower street grounds. Huntington Beach lost the inaugural, 10-2, and the grand finale, 6-5, to Santa Ana in the first half. But the 1934 champs offset these defeats by taking the measure of Tom Denney's cohorts, 3-1 and 4-1, on Huntington Beach soil.

It is doubtful whether Charley Zaby, the hard-hitting rightfielder who blasted two homers off Coates in his last visit, will be in the Oiler lineup. Zaby has been on the sidelines for two games with a swollen right hand. Poison set in after he had several pieces of steel taken from the injury.

Merle Urbine, acquired from Westminster, will not join Santa Ana against Zaby until the game at Anaheim Friday. He is being withheld by Manager George Lackaye of the Aviators for Westminster's contest at Olive tonight. George Preble, who saved the Stars from embarrassment against Long Beach with a spectacular one-handed catch to nip a rally started by the Admirals in the eighth Tuesday, will hold down the first sack, as usual.

The hitting streak of LeRoy "Chub" York, alternate in left field, may land him a part-time role again tonight in place of Manager Denney.

COUNCIL INCREASES CITY BUDGET AT NO COST TO TAXPAYERS

UTILITIES TAX WILL ABSORB ADDITIONS

$536,254 Outlay Given Approval; New Income Holds Down Tax Rate

Anticipated extra tax income from public utility properties turned over to the city by the state will equal approximately the increase in this year's city budget over last year's actual expenditures. This, if it ultimately works out, would mean that despite the budget increase, the taxpayer would pay about the same amount of money as last year, to the city.

This condition was brought about last night by City Auditor Lloyd Banks as the city council approved a $536,254 budget for the coming year, including provision for better street light service on a number of the city's streets.

The city's assessed valuation is expected to fall in the neighborhood of $21,500,000, without the utilities. These may total $2,000,000, with a possible variation either way. On this basis, a tax rate of approximately $1.55 per $100 of assessed valuation would be a possibility, as compared to $1.75 last year. The lower rate would raise more money than it would have last year because the state has increased assessed valuations by 35 per cent.

No Promises Made

However, the council has made no promises about the tax rate, which ordinarily is fixed in the first week of September. Its members have evidenced a desire to make sure that the total tax bill for any individual will be about the same as last year.

Actual expenditures last year were $496,900. This year's budget, which still may be changed up or down, is $536,254 larger than this figure. It is estimated that utilities taxes may bring in about $32,000, to nearly balance this increase.

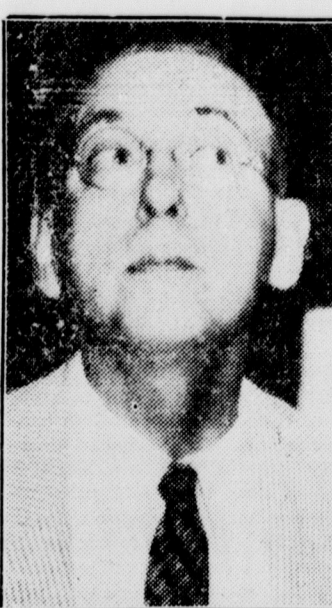

The budget adopted by the council last night does not include an item for retirement of the special assessment district bonds issued by local districts under the 1915 bond improvement act. These delinquent bonds are regarded as a city obligation in view of a court decision. The council still can include this item before the tax rate is fixed. It is estimated that a rate of 14 cents could take care of this year's obligations on the bonds, all of which will mature by 1941.

Increases Explained

The increase in the budget is brought about by the necessity reported by department heads for additional equipment, by salary increases for city employees in lower brackets, amounting to $8000 or $9000, by city hall expenses and opening of Flower street between Fifth and Sixth streets. Actual operating expenses, City Auditor Banks explained, are about the same as for last year.

It will be necessary this year to provide $8800, representing two years' payments on interest and retirement of city hall bonds. Last year's share of this money could not be provided then because the bonds had not been voted. The payments have already begun to fall due, however. A $20,000 portion of the budget increase is represented by architects' fees, contractors' profit, compensation and other insurance on the city hall project, which must be provided by the city. This money was raised last year but was not

PERFECTS NEW DRINK FLAVORS

"What flavor?" asks the soda fountain clerk, if you have neglected to specify your choice.

In order to give you the largest possible variety to select from, Alfred J. Taylor has been experimenting for the past five or six years and has perfected more than 60 varieties to be used in malted milks, ice cream or other fountain drinks.

Mr. Taylor expects to complete his laboratory work in a few days and will then offer to the trade the results of his experimentations, which will give one the opportunity of making his drink selections from his more than 60 different formulas. He has been able through years of diligent research to perfect many flavors heretofore considered impossible. Among these are the crabapple, applejack, pink lady and creme de cocoa. All of these, Mr. Taylor states, will be available in a few days.

The exclusive use of these 60 odd flavors will be served in Santa Ana in Mr. Taylor's two stores. He has his laboratory in Santa Ana, where all flavors will be manufactured. The products are at present retailing, but arrangements will be made later for wholesale service.

paid because the building had not started in time. Mr. Banks pointed out that it must show as an increase in the budget this year because it will be expended this year.

WPA NOT TO AID DRAIN PROJECT

Unless the government changes its regulations, Santa Ana will have to seek aid through the Public Works administration for construction of a storm drain system. This would mean that the city would have to provide 55 per cent of the cost. City Engineer J. L. McBride told the city council last night that the new Works Progress administration limitations on project costs would make it impossible for the storm drain to be a WPA project unless regulations are changed.

The WPA limit is $25,000 for all except a certain specified list of projects, which does not include storm drains, Mr. McBride said. The storm drain would cost more than $25,000. Under the WPA, sponsors are asked to supply only 20 per cent of the total costs, instead of 55 per cent as under the PWA.

Possibility of Aid

Mr. McBride said that if the WPA will allow construction of such projects by units, which could be kept under $25,000, there might be a possibility of aid from that source. He has been working, he said, with Murray N. Thompson, county flood control engineer, in working out a joint city and county storm drain program for Santa Ana.

Mr. McBride reported last night that the Santiago creek parkway project, a rat extermination project and a group of other small projects for technical and office workers, which have been carried on under the SERA, have been submitted for approval of the WPA, the organization that is supplanting the SERA.

Suggests Projects

He also suggested a list of other projects and was instructed by the council to submit them to the WPA. Granting of a project application does not mean necessarily that the work will be done unless the city desires it.

The suggested projects include removal of dead trees, tree planting and tree surgery, painting the municipal bowl, band stand and benches in Birch park, grading of Edgewood road, North Bush street, West Santa Clara, West Cubbon and East Grant streets, sewer improvements on West Washington, West Eighth and Hawley streets, replacing old two-inch water mains with four and six-inch pipes, extension of Santiago creek parkway between Main street and Santa Ana boulevard, and replacing wooden culverts with concrete.

will be financed by fines, but the $5600 item shows as an increase in the budget.

Statue of Modjeska Will Be Placed In Anaheim City Park

By ROCH BRADSHAW

The Anaheim city park will be the center of interest for hundreds of Southland citizens in the near future when a statue of Madame Modjeska, famous actress of the nineties, will be unveiled. The statue was placed in the northeast portion of the park yesterday afternoon, where final touches will be given it.

Made possible through the efforts of Louis Danz of Anaheim, member of the Southern California public works art committee, the statue will represent the fruits of cooperation of the city and the Anaheim Rotary club. The artist is Eugene Meier-Kreig of Hollywood.

The date for the unveiling, on which the Anaheim chamber of commerce is making arrangements, has not been set, owing to the fact that the figure is not entirely completed.

More In Limelight

The Anaheim park, already in the limelight as one of the best between Los Angeles and San Diego, will be brought further into the public eye by the unveiling ceremonies. Hundreds of persons who have known of Madame Modjeska as the famous actress who came to Anaheim from Poland and later established her home at the Forest of Arden in Santiago canyon, will find a new interest in the municipal park.

Not only individuals but city officials throughout the Southland have been watching development of the 20-acre park with unusual interest. The beautiful grounds, superintended by Rudolph Boyens, represent the carrying out of a definite plan conceived by park experts nearly 15 years ago. The original plan, providing for orderly and attractive development, has been followed carefully with only minor changes.

Beauty Is Amazing

Thousands of Orange county and Southland residents know the park as something more than an area covered with trees, shrubs and

WATCH IS 200 YEARS OLD

And Still Good Timekeeper

"More than 200 years old and still an accurate time keeper" is the way Frank Matthys, pressman at The Journal, describes a hand-made watch that is one of his most valued possessions.

Mr. Matthys said the watch has been in his father's family for as far back as any record of the family can be traced. Handed down from father to son, the timepiece was brought to America from Holland by Peter Matthys, grandfather of the present owner. He gave it to his son, D. F. Matthys, who passed it on to his son in 1931 when he died.

All working parts of the watch, including a fine driving chain which operates the gears, are made of gold and elaborately engraved. The works are held in a hammered silver case by tiny pin bolts instead of screws. The crystal is hand ground and is the same one that was on the watch when it was made. One hand, too, is an original. The other was replaced many years ago after having been broken. The silver timepiece is carried in a protective hand-moulded brass case.

Engraved on the works is the legend "Samson-London" and the serial number 24, indicating, according to the owner, that the watch was the twenty-fourth

CHANGES FOR CITY HALL APPROVED

Santa Ana will have a meeting place in its new city hall for small public gatherings and conventions. The council chamber, seating 450 to 500 persons, will be available for this purpose as a result of action taken by the city council last night.

On recommendation of Councilman Joseph P. Smith the governing body approved changes in construction which will cost $4,562.40, the most outstanding of which will be to shift the council chamber from the west to the east side of the third floor.

By doing this, the contractors will be able to eliminate six columns which otherwise would obstruct the room. Replacing these, steel beams will support the roof. Elimination of the columns will make the chamber more satisfactory as a meeting place.

Offices for Councilmen

Another new feature of the revised plans will provide offices for each member of the council. Mr. Smith said that it is expected certain regular hours at which he can be found in his office. There also will be an office for a secretary next to the mayor's office.

Original plans called for a large unused space or well above the concrete ramp leading to the basement where police cars will be kept. Instead of this open space above the ramp, a concrete floor has been provided above the ramp which will make additional space available on the second floor.

Other Changes

Other changes authorized last night include lowering of two raised portions of the mezzanine floor to the level of the rest of the floor, moving of a concrete stairway from the center of the building to the southeast corner, elimination of a bridge over an inner court, changes in restroom arrangements, elimination of two offsets in a hallway, and providing of quarters for the planning commission.

Moving of the stairway will make it possible to finish two additional rooms, through one of which the stairway would have run. It also will make it possible to provide better ventilation and light for the police department, Mr. Smith said.

The changes were approved by V. W. Houghton, resident engineer for the Public Works administration, which is aiding financially in construction of the city hall.

20-30 CLUB HEARS BANKER TONIGHT

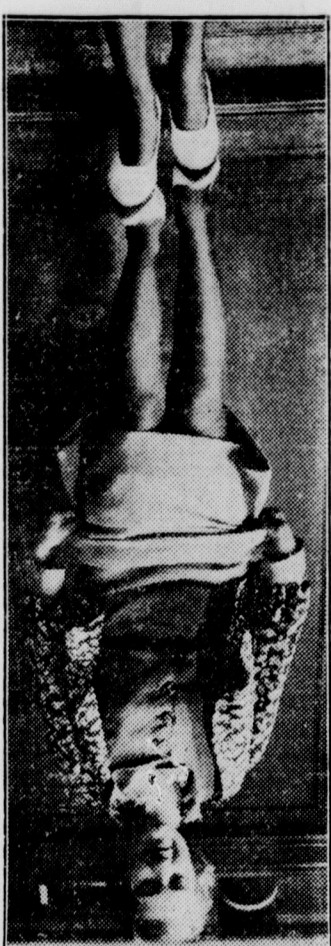

Members of the Santa Ana 20-30 club at their meeting in the James cafe tonight will hear Harry V. Adams, member of the public relations department of the Security First National bank of Los Angeles. Mr. Adams is being brought here by Frank W. Adams, manager of the Santa Ana branch of the bank.

Dick Ewert, program chairman for the evening, said Mr. Adams is a former Chautauqua speaker and for 15 years toured the middle-west, lecturing. During that time, Mr. Adams spent many years lecturing on the same programs with William Jennings Bryan. Members of the 20-30 club have extended an invitation to any who may be interested in hearing the speaker.

Mr. Matthys has taken the watch to various jewelers in an effort to have its exact age determined. They have been unable to fix the date of its manufacture other than to say that it is more than 200 years old.

LEGION TO END NOMINATIONS

Nominations will be closed and convention plans discussed at the meeting of American Legion post No. 131 Thursday night at 8 o'clock when the post assemblies for its monthly business meeting. Election of officers has been set for the first meeting in September.

Sons of the American Legion will meet August 17 at 10 a. m. at the Legion Hall. September 1 has been set aside as American Legion day at the state fair in Sacramento, and October 5 and 6 will be American Legion days at the California Pacific International exposition at San Diego, with exhibitions of drum corps, drill teams, and bands, on the schedule.

'Bulging Brow' Fish Sans Scales Puzzles Fisherman

SAN PEDRO, Aug. 6. (AP)—George Tavra awaited a formal opinion today from the state fish and game commission on the identity of a fish he hooked off the coast here.

Tavra said the fish had a "bulging brow," the body of a tuna, no scales, red fins and a red tail.

PARK BODY IS NAMED BY COUNCIL

Santa Ana has a new park and forestry board today. Yet there are no more boards or commissions functioning than there were before the park body was appointed last night by the city council.

The new park board also will handle the work formerly done by the old forestry board. It is a joint commission. Its job will be to look after Birch park, the city's Santiago parkway, Jack Fisher park, the French street park and the municipal bowl, as well as carry on the tree planting projects formerly handled by the forestry board.

Appointees Approved

Mayor Fred Rowland appointed the new board last night and it was approved immediately by the council.

The board includes A. H. Allen, Oliver Halsell, J. R. Bruff, Mrs. Ruth Forgy and E. M. Hall. Councilman Ernest Layton and City Engineer J. L. McBride will be ex-officio members. Mr. Allen, Mr. Halsell and Mr. Bruff were on the old forestry board, with Mr. McBride as an ex-officio member.

Responsible to Council

The new body will be responsible directly to the city council, whereas the old one was responsible to the planning commission.

Mr. Allen and Mrs. Forgy also were members of the planning commission. Their now vacant places on the board were filled by Mayor Rowland and the council last night by the appointment of Milburn Harvey and Mrs. Ora Heine.

The old forestry board included, in addition to Mr. Allen, Mr. Halsell and Mr. Bruff, another member, Asa Hoffman.

Ocean-Front Dinner Party Enjoyed by S. A. Business, Professional Women

Cares of Day Forgotten At Party

Next Meeting Of Club To Be Dinner At El Padre Cafe in Capistrano

Taking advantage of summer's warm, long evenings, Santa Ana Business and Professional Women's club members forsook their usual business-dinner program last evening and held an informal dinner party at the Broiler cafe on the boardwalk overlooking the ocean at Laguna Beach.

After dinner the group strolled through "Our Village," inspecting the craftwork in the various art shops.

Next meeting, Monday evening, August 19, the club will meet for a similarly informal dinner at El Padre cafe in San Juan Capistrano. The cafe is located one-fourth mile south of Capistrano mission. Louise Kaiser is to arrange for a surprise speaker.

Lena Thomas told the clubwomen that one of the Los Angeles B. P. W. club sponsors a business women's luncheon to which they are invited, each Thursday noon at Bullocks in Los Angeles. This week, the national federation recording secretary will be an honored guest.

Ethel Hedrick brought additional echoes from the recent national convocation of business and professional women which she attended as a delegate, in Seattle.

HERMOSA CHAPTER EXTENDS WELCOME TO VACATIONERS

It was "welcome home" night for many at Hermosa chapter, O. E. S., last night when the regular chapter meeting was held in the Masonic temple.

Around the room were many who had not been seen at chapter for some time: Mrs. Linna Hanson, just returned from three months in the middle west—Mrs. Gibson who has been sojourning in the north—Mrs. Olive Ranney, Mrs. Hannah Stacey, and Mrs. Estelle Workman, who'd played "hooky" much of the summer—Mrs. D. M. Terhune, who'd just returned from the middle west—Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Reed, just home from a trip near Bishop—Mrs. Clara Dugan, Mrs. Marguerite Cave, and Mrs. Margaret Gilbert who have been ill—Dr. E. G. Motley and Mrs. Motley who have been away on a trip to the east.

Mrs. Inez Orton, 57th district deputy grand matron, and Clarence Orton, worthy patron of Huntington Beach, were escorted to the East at chapter meeting.

At the program which followed, Mrs. Leslie Pearson, costumed as Uncle Ezzy, presented a bed-time story, localizing the characters to fit members of the chapter. Dr. Cassius Paul led community singing.

A watermelon feed was served by Mrs. J. W. McCormac, Mrs. Samuel Nau, Mrs. Elizabeth Lavery, Mrs. Motley and Miss Nellie Matheny.

Aug. 19 was set for initiation, and Sept. 30 for a reception for the district deputy grand matron. Amber circle will not meet in August.

MAGNOLIA R. N. A. HAS PICNIC SUPPER

Anaheim park was the meeting place for a group of 25 members of Magnolia lodge, Royal Neighbors of America, last night, when they held a pot-luck supper there.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Birt were in charge of arrangements.

PARIS SAYS 'LACE' FOR NEGLIGEEES

White cobweb lace over white crepe makes one of the filmy new Paris negligees. The low V-neckline is accented by the long drooping sleeves, while the girdle is marked by a black enamel flower outlined in silver. Design by Maggy Rouff.

WANDERLUST CALLS MANY TO FAR CITIES, COUNTRIES

It's summer, the wanderlust beckons one and all to travel to far parts, and not a few Santa Anans and their friends are heeding the call, if one would judge by the tickets that have left Louis Hanson's World Travel bureau lately.

The Rev. T. R. Jackman and Mrs. Jackman with their young daughter left Santa Ana this month for Seattle, whence they will go to Palestine and spend a year studying.

V. F. Hayes of Santa Ana will leave Friday for a trip to Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Merker are in Seattle for a vacation stay.

Misses Frances Potts and Alice Wasser came home yesterday and resumed their duties after visiting Canada, Lake Louise, Banff and en route home, San Francisco.

R. A. Lamour of Irvine is to sail Saturday on the S. S. Conte Grande for Gibraltar, French Morocco and France, where he will spend a year before returning to the United States.

Pearl Christensen of Santa Ana left Honolulu yesterday to return home after spending five busy days touring the islands. She is on board the S. S. Lurline.

Mrs. Peterson and her daughter, Helen, of Minneapolis, Minn., are to leave Saturday to return home after vacationing in Santa Ana and vicinity. Another returning guest is Mildred Nuechterlein, who will soon resume her school teaching duties at Grand Rapids, Mich., after vacationing in Orange.

Doris Nesbitt, who heard of the travel bureau through friends, will arrive next Tuesday in Los Angeles from New Orleans, Havana and Cristobal, and will return thence to Las Vegas, Nev.

A MERINGUE SECRET
Meringue falls when the oven is too hot. The secret of success with meringues is a very moderate oven—less than hot.

Talks to Parents

By BROOKE PETERS CHURCH

Sufficient To The Day
By BROOKE PETERS CHURCH
Mrs. M. was a "worrier." She worried about everything. It was really a habit of thought and speech, but it infected all about her, and especially her children.

If Tommy was late from school she worried lest he had been run over, and wandered about the house unable to concentrate on anything until he came in. If Mary had a sore throat she worried, lest the child were coming down with scarlet fever. If there was an epidemic of any kind at school, she worried lest her children catch it. She worried about bills, about her husband's job, her family's health, until her face fell into set lines of anxiety.

Disease of Worry
It never occurred to her that she was spreading a disease for which there was no cure and no inoculation—the disease of worry. As her children began to show the same symptoms of anxiety, her only comment was: "Yes, they're born worriers."

GAY NOTE TAKEN AT FOURSQUARE MISSIONARY MEET

Program and refreshments "went Spanish and Mexican" at the meeting of the Foursquare missionary society held last night at the home of the Rev. Sibyl Mae Archer, 1504 West Eighth street.

As the guests arrived they were greeted by Mr. Marval, a Spanish serenader, singing native songs and strumming a guitar.

The house was decorated with Mexican colors of red, green and black. Mrs. Marval told of her trip to Old Mexico last year, and a study of Mexican missions was made by the group.

Among the group who were dressed in Mexican and Spanish garb was little Roberta, Ruth Archer, wearing a peasant frock. Tortillas, tamales and watermelon were served as refreshments.

Others present were Ruth and Rachel Goode, Georgia and Lodene Williams, Margie and Vivian Grist, Beatrice Holly, Irene Wyckoff, Betty Pace, Wyoming Sieveke, Irene and Violet McIntire, Aurora Archer, Audrey Hopkins, Virginia Rogers, Mildred Jackson, Mildred Ekwall, Bruce Mayhugh, Donald and Phillip Grist, Weldon Gillingham, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wyckoff, the Rev. J. W. Archer and Mrs. Overholser.

MRS. HATTIE WALL COMPLIMENTED AT DINNER PARTY

Mrs. Hattie Wall of Santa Ana was complimented Sunday evening with a birthday dinner party given by a group of relatives and friends at El Favorito cafe in Orange.

The four-course dinner was climaxed by presentation of a large birthday cake to Mrs. Wall. Also present were Misses Mary and Hattie Belle Wall, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dowling and Robert Hagans of Santa Ana.

Ruth Walker Honored At Shower

Miss Ruth Ann Walker, attractive and talented young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sharpless Walker of North Sycamore street, who very recently confided to a few of her friends that she is to be married this fall to Clyde Spears, Los Angeles engineer, was complimented last evening at a buffet supper and trousseau shower given by Miss Marjorie Hall at her home in Long Beach.

After the supper hour, the honored guest unwrapped her shower gifts. Later, bridge was played. Mrs. Benjamin Spears of Los Angeles and Miss Marjorie Schweitzer of Long Beach won high score awards.

Miss Walker, who wore an informal blue and white polka dot silk frock, attended Santa Ana High school and Junior college and was graduated from the University of California at Los Angeles, where she was a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. She took post-graduate work at the University of Southern California. She has had an intensive training in music, and teaches piano in Santa Ana, Long Beach and Hollywood, where her studio residence is located.

Mr. Spears, a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity, is a graduate of the Colorado School of Mines and last year completed work toward his master's degree at the California Institute of Technology. He is in business in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Sharpless Walker, Mrs. J. Eugene Walker, Mrs. Clarence Ranney and Miss Ellen Sneyley of Santa Ana and Mrs. John Ferte (Helen Drake) of Los Angeles were among the guests invited to the shower.

SANTA ANAN GOES TO LOS ANGELES WITH EASTERNERS

Mrs. H. D. Straw of 1609 North Main street left today for Los Angeles to spend several days at the Rosslyn hotel with Mrs. F. B. Seymour of Green Bay, Wis., and Miss Katherine Tyler of Stevens Point, Wis., who have spent a short time at her house, guests and who will leave soon to return home by way of Seattle and San Francisco.

The visit with the easterners was especially pleasant to Mrs. Straw since her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Quatsoe, are pioneer residents of Green Bay, and she and her guests were friends in the east.

Mr. Seymour, who was prevented by his health from making the trip west, is a distinguished individual in that he served the Green Bay and Western Railway company continuously for 64 years and retired a few years ago as its president. He began working for the company as a little boy, and rose by gradual stages to its head.

MRS. HERBERT HILL ENTERTAINS HER BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. Herbert Hill entertained members of her informal contract bridge club with a party last evening in her home on West Washington street.

By an odd chance, Mrs. Hill scored high for the evening in contract. Two tables were in play. Late in the evening she served a dessert course.

Ebell Plans Public Fete Next Week

"Let us be gay!" is the slogan of Santa Ana Valley Ebell club's finance committee which, under the leadership of Mrs. Rex Kennedy, will break into the calm of summertime by sponsoring a 2 o'clock garden party Thursday afternoon, Aug. 15, at the E. D. White home, 2115 North Broadway.

There will be tables for those who play contract and auction bridge, and still other tables with entertainment for non-bridge players. Tea will be served.

The general public has been invited to the party, to which clubwomen from other Orange county communities will also be bidden.

Committees for the party, as far as they have been selected, include Mrs. Ralph Smedley, chairman of chairs; Mrs. George Raymer, umbrellas; Mrs. Hugh J. Lowe, chairman, and Mrs. Horace Stevens, assisting tables; Mrs. Hugh Shields, tallies, pencils and cards; Mrs. B. J. MacMullen, prizes; Mrs. Dexter Ball, chairman, and Mesdames J. I. Clarke, Wilbur Barr, William H. Maag, W. I. Ferrey, John Ball and F. P. Jay, refreshments; Mrs. J. T. Wilson, chairman, and Mesdames E. R. Abbey, J. E. Liebig, J. P. Hatfield, J. C. Lamb, J. C. Horton, C. D. Newman, Wyckoff Hoxie and Ellis Diehl, dishes; Mrs. A. G. Flagg, tickets and reservations, and Mrs. Walter E. Watkins, sending of invitations to other clubs.

BAPTIST WOMEN CONTINUE SUMMER READING SESSIONS

Continuing their series of summer readings, two Baptist women's groups met yesterday afternoon.

Miss Gertrude Minor at 207 West Ninth street was hostess to a group including Mesdames Jennie Crawford, L. C. Fairbanks, M. M. Holmes, George Mullis, R. E. Coulter, Nannie Glenn and Miss Grace Roberts. They are reading a book on prayer and another entitled, "Toward a Christian America."

The Fahlou class met yesterday at the home of Miss Ella Vescey at 805 North Broadway, to read Stanley Jones' "Christ's Alternative for Communism." Mrs. Roscoe Moore's home at 515 Eastwood avenue was chosen for the meeting place next Monday.

J. O. C. CLASS WILL PICNIC TONIGHT

Mrs. C. H. Powers at 614 South Birch street will be hostess to the J. O. C. class of the First Baptist church at a garden picnic supper tonight.

Vacation experiences will be recounted on the program. Assisting the hostess will be Miss Gertrude Minor, Miss Lula Minter and Mrs. Ethel Watters.

EL TORO GAINS TWO RESIDENTS

With the birth of two babies Sunday in the Santa Ana Valley hospital, the little town of El Toro gained to new residents.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gillette of El Toro have a new son, and Mr. and Mrs. F. Foster Prather of El Toro are parents of a daughter, born in the hospital. Both fathers are ranchers.

Mary Stoddard Selfishness of Woman Can Destroy All Chances of Husband and Family For Happiness

By MARY STODDARD
Selfishness, it seems to me, is the ugliest of sins. Every one of us is guilty of it at some time or other. But every one of us with a spark of decency is willing to give consideration to the feelings of others—when the need of such consideration is shown.

There are women, however, who think only of themselves—and cannot force their narrow minds beyond that petty, selfish point of view.

Every bit as sinister as the wife who hangs on to her husband as a "meal ticket" long after any mutual devotion or respect have fled. Such a case comes to my attention.

It concerns a man who, losing the young wife he adored, married, chiefly for companionship, a woman twice divorced. She had a young son. To the best of his ability he supported and cared for them, was loyal and thoughtful. Before long he realized that he and his wife had nothing in common—not even mutual respect.

He continued, nevertheless, to play out the role he had taken for himself, longing for the day when the son would be old enough to care for his mother. When that time came, the boy married—as young people do. Although the woman is well able to support herself, she now refuses to release her husband from a marriage that is distasteful to both of them, for she has no love for him. The situation was brought to me by a sister-in-law, whose sympathy is all with the man who has worked so long and so hopelessly.

FIG PRESERVES

By Mrs. W. B. Risk

Ingredients: 3 quarts figs, 2 cups sugar, 2 cups water, 3 sticks cinnamon, 2 tablespoons vinegar, 1 cup sugar, 1 teaspoon whole cloves in a bag.

Directions: Wash thoroughly (but not peel) figs; add water until figs are covered and boil 10 min. Skim out and drop in a syrup immediately.

Make syrup of water and sugar brought to a boil, and boil all gently 10 min. Let stand all night and boil 10 min. each day for 3 days. Add cinnamon, vinegar, sugar and cloves in a bag. Boil 10 min., set aside and cook one more day. Should syrup boil away too much, add more sugar the last day before canning.

The Thinkers

Wherein women of the community express their views on topics of particular interest to women.

What is your ideal type of sales person in a store or shop?

Mrs. H. D. Straw: Having worked myself for years at Bullocks Wilshire, I've concluded it's according to the individual which type of sales person is ideal. Personally, I like a sales person who is considerate and interested and still does not make me feel "watched." I enjoy being shown whatever is new and interesting. It seems to me to be undesirable when a clerk talks too long and not enough to the point, to a customer.

Mrs. W. R. Newbold: I rather like someone to wait on me who will let me decide what I want, myself. On the other hand, I don't like to patronize stores whose clerks act as though they don't care whether or not you get what you're looking for.

Mrs. W. I. Davis: I prefer a sales person who will let me alone until I decide what I want. I've never had one who was too indifferent.

Mrs. F. J. Harris: I like the one who stands back and lets me decide what I want to buy. The sales person who is completely uninterested in what her customers want seldom lasts long in a store. I think sales people should be helpful, but not insistent.

HARD OF HEARING TO BE AID AT LARK ELLEN BOWL

Those who are hard of hearing will be able to enjoy next Monday evening's concert at Lark Ellen Bowl near Covina, since for the evening by the courtesy of the Acousticon company special apparatus will be installed, it was learned today.

The symphony orchestra directed by Vernon Robinson will play classic and modern numbers. Misses Louise Wiley and Elizabeth Wallace will sing. Frank Seiger will also sing, and Madame Yaw will give an encore performance of the aria from "Traviata" which she gave in the opening concert of the season.

ELECTION OF P. T. A. HEAD POSTPONED

That election of a president of John Muir Parent-Teacher association will be postponed until after school opens when a mass meeting of the association can be held as decided at the meeting of the executive board held yesterday at the home of Mrs. Paul Roberts, 514 North Lyon street. The vacancy was caused recently when Mrs. H. M. Whisenand moved from the district.

'If In Doubt'

H. G.: Yes, a wife is out of place at a stag party. So is a mother. For a woman to receive her husband's guests is to make him appear hen-pecked. The stag party is an all-male affair, and should be kept as such.

Outdoor Girl To Sail In Morning

"All aboard for Hawaii!" will be the signal tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock for Barbara Rowland, to embark on the President Hoover for prize-winning sea voyage which Barbara won at "Outdoor Girl" of California.

Tickets cleared, the two will stop only briefly in San Francisco before they start on the long lap to the islands. Plans are being made for a committee from San Francisco and for a group of Barbara's fellow-competitors at Salinas to "send off" the winner on her trip Thursday at San Francisco. She is to take her riding togs with her and will make several appearances as California's "Outdoor Girl."

Among those who plan to wish Barbara and her mother "bon voyage" at the Wilmington docks tomorrow morning are Mayor Rowland, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wilson and daughter, Barbara Joan, Miss Lavina Scott, Miss Lula E. Finley, Dr. Elliott H. Rowland and Mrs. Rowland, Miss Betty Rowland, Mrs. Ruth Monro, Mrs. Hillary Harkness, Mrs. C. F. Crose, Mrs. E. D. White, Miss Boyd Joplin and Jack Wilson of Los Angeles.

Movie Scoring Told By P.-T. A.

Estimates released today by the motion picture committee of the Parent-Teacher association included the following reviews in the "best of the month" rating: "Curly Top" with Shirley Temple is reminiscent of "Daddy Long Legs," the review states, and is good entertainment for adults as well as children.

Family scoring is granted "Diamond Jim," a historical film, commended for its fine cast. "The Farmer Takes a Wife," depicts the era of 1840 when the Erie canal was the connecting link between New York and the Great Lakes. Janet Gaynor and Henry Fonda star.

A social drama, "Jalna," is said to be aptly cast. Jessie Ralph plays the part of the grandmother who dominates the entire household.

Noel Coward and Julie Hayden take honors for work in "The Sounder," a sophisticated drama slated for adults only.

TONIGHT'S PROGRAMS

By HOMER CANFIELD

SHORT SHOTS & STUFF—The "Beauty Box Theater of the Air" operettas have been changed to Fridays. The usual hour, however, 6 o'clock... Louis Prima's hot five are on KJH-CBS at 6:45 p. m. And Louis is not a Negro as a good many of you believe. He's an Italian. All that dusky der if you haven't been too absorbed in the stories of "Calling All Cars" to really appreciate the program's atmospheric music. We think it's the best part of the program. Credit Frederick Stark... Meredith Williams, who impresses as the best studio conductor, will be heard from San Francisco (KFI-NBC) at 9 o'clock. The program will be classical and have Carlotia King and Armand Girard for vocalists. It will be one of the evening's highlights... Catch the Bing Crosby quality of Jerry Cooper, KJH, 6:30 o'clock... Frederick Stark conducts in the Hollywood Bowl Sept. 5... Dorothy Mackall, forgotten by most of the picture fans, will be heard with Nils Granland, KFI-NBC, 5 o'clock... KRKD has a new nightly serial at 6 o'clock called "Joe and Sam"... It is Larry Burke you see and hear singing in the music, "The Informant"... But Larry was given a poor job of "mixing"... For that little book of yours: CBS for Lawrence Tibbett Sept. 17... Walter O'Keefe, Casa Loma, Deane Janis (instead of Annette Hanshaw) Oct. 1... "Court of Human Relations" over NBC Oct. 4... Helen Hayes, a regular weekly Sept. 30, NBC... Still elaborate plans by the networks for the finale of congress if, when and where... Jean Harlow and Clark Gable on "Radio City Hotel" Friday... Mills Bros, NBC, Oct. 4... Sigmund Romberg again Sept. 10... Jane Williams, Sept. 18... And still more to come. Radio'll have its busiest session this fall.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 6. (AP)—California oranges and lemons were generally steady to lower today at eastern and middle western auction centers. Carlot auction sales averages per box of California citrus were reported to the California Fruit Growers exchange on its own brands, and to the Associated Press on all others, as follows:

PHILADELPHIA: Valencia's	easy 190s and larger, unchanged	170s-250s, strong 280s and smaller, lemons lower. Sales: 12 cars oranges; 5 lemons.

THE ADVENTURES OF PATSY

THROUGH THE USE OF A CLEVER RUSE, PATSY WAS DISCOVERED THAT KING GOOF STILL LOVES QUEEN SYLVIA!

NOW IT LOOKS AS IF THE KING IS ABOUT READY TO TALK.....

GOLLY, KING, I WANT YOU TO KNOW I'M YOUR PAL... I WANT TO HELP YOU. WHY DON'T YOU UNLOAD YOUR WHOLE STORY TO ME? C'MON!

ALL RIGHT, LASS. YOU'VE BEEN MIGHTY SWEET... BUT THIS IS JUST BETWEEN YOU AND I!

QUEEN SYLVIA'S FATHER OBJECTED TO OUR MARRIAGE AND WE HAD TO RUN AWAY. BUT WE LOVED ONE ANOTHER DEARLY, AND CAME TO THIS CASTLE... IT WAS DESERTED THEN, FORMERLY A PIRATE STRONGHOLD..... WE DECIDED TO MAKE IT OUR HOME.....

WE PLANNED TO BE THE HAPPIEST COUPLE IN THE WORLD... AND THEN I MADE A TERRIBLE DISCOVERY! MY WIFE COULDN'T COOK! YOU'LL STILL FIND THE RUINS OF HER FIRST CAKE, IN THE CELLAR... IT FELL THROUGH THE OVEN, AND ON THROUGH THE FLOOR!

GEE?

ONE KING CONTINUES WITH HIS SAD STORY.....

"WHENEVER SHE MIXED A BATTER OF DOUGH, IT TURNED HARD AS A ROCK... I USED IT TO REPAIR THE FLOOR WHERE THE CAKE HAD FALLEN THROUGH! EVEN THE RATS REFUSED TO EAT HER COOKING AND LEFT, ONE BY ONE, RATHER THAN STARVE TO DEATH! I SHINGLED THE ROOF WITH HER PANCAKES AND SOLED MY SHOES WITH HER PIE CRUSTS..."

I REMARKED ONE DAY, THAT SHE OUGHT TO IMPROVE HER COOKING... SHE STORMED ALL OVER THE PLACE... SAID I DIDN'T KNOW GOOD COOKING WHEN I ATE IT... ONE THING LED TO ANOTHER, AND WE PARTED, BITTER ENEMIES!

WILMA AND I WERE ON MARS TO DISCOVER THE FATE OF KING INNALDO, WHO HAD BEEN DEPOSED BY THE REBEL LEADER ZARBO—AND TO LOCATE SECRET AGENT ZARBO WHO HAD ALSO DISAPPEARED.

OUR TRAILS CONSTANTLY CROSSED THOSE OF TWO MYSTERIOUS INDIVIDUALS NAMED NELDA AND GALDO. WILMA SEIZED NELDA'S IDENTIFICATION PAPERS AND, IMPERSONATING HER, SECURED A POST AS SECRETARY TO ZARBO HIMSELF. GALDO RECOGNIZED WILMA WHO ZARBO HAD HIM FLED, PURSUED BY NELDA.

© 1935 JOHN F. DILLE CO. REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

WILMA RACED THROUGH THE DESERTED STREETS OF THE CAPITAL.

NOW I AM IN A JAM! GALDO KNOWS I'M WILMA DEERING—IF HE EVER TELLS ZARBO—WHAT WAS THAT? FOOTSTEPS FOLLOWING ME?

GALDO! I FORGOT ABOUT HIM! I JUST CAN'T LEAVE HIM BACK THERE PARALYZED! I'LL HAVE TO GO BACK TO HIM!

NELDA RETURNED TO GALDO AND REVIVED HIM.

BUT I TELL YOU, I COULDN'T BE MISTAKEN. IT WAS WILMA DEERING, OF EARTH!

WHAT? YOU'RE POSITIVE? THEN WE'LL HAVE TO CHANGE OUR TACTICS, AND TELL HER CERTAIN THINGS!

© 1935 JOHN F. DILLE CO. REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

At last they were off again. Mrs. Quacko sang a little quacking song as they drove and Christopher joined in the chorus. Neither thought much of the other's voice, and Willy Nilly did not feel either his duck, or crow, was really musical, but he enjoyed their good spirits.

Suddenly another sound was heard—and they went "bump-bump-bump, bump."

Tomorrow—"lat Tire"

Texas has been under seven flags, instead of six as heretofore recorded in history. The Comanche flag also waved there, finds Author Mary J. dan Atkinson.

VOL. 1, NO. 83 Tuesday, August 6, 1935

NEEDED: A PRISON PLAN

WHEN or if the state bond issue is voted at the special election a week from Tuesday, our prison officials should get together and plan such a use of their bond money as will make an important beginning at least of a better prison system for California, says the San Francisco News.

Prison experts like Julian Alco, Prison Director Frank C. Sykes of San Francisco and Joseph Stephens, the Sacramento banker, who is a member of the State Board of Prison Terms and Paroles, are agreed that we should establish prison farms for youthful offenders, extend the prison road camps, and otherwise get away from the expensive, stupid and demoralizing old system of locking men up in steel cells and leaving them to rot in idleness.

The news is right but—We have been hearing these things for years, and instead of doing anything about it we build more cell-blocks at a cost of $2000 a cell to the taxpayer and plan another prison of the same old type.

Why not, if the bond issue carries, a business-like huddle of all state prison officials, with experts like Sanford Bates, director of Federal prisons, and Warden James Johnston of Alcatraz called in as advisers? Why not a complete prison plan toward which to work, and a beginning now with the money that we hope will be available this year?

Mr. Stephens is the latest to declare the need for prison farms and a wider use of the road camp system. He urged both before the Rotary Club of Sacramento on Thursday, and added a warm defense of the parole system, pointing out that 96 of every 100 paroled men go straight and only 56 per cent of those who complete their terms. Men on parole in California today have $5,500,000 deposited in savings banks.

Item: Of 17,000 prisoners brought before the board in the past five years, said Mr. Stephens, only one had been a Boy Scout.

SWEETENING OUR OWN SAUCE

TO MANY the old appeal to "trade at home" has probably gone stale, but there still remains a virtue in it. Announcement that the Holly Sugar company has opened its Dyer plant for a three months' run, and will during that time distribute in wages approximately $200,000 to a crew of 300 to 350 men, has a trade significance. In addition to this sum another $200,000 will be distributed to field workers. These two items reflect considerable buying power, of sufficient importance to impress upon the people of Santa Ana that "trading at home" does have its virtue.

The way to indicate an appreciation of this industry is to buy its finished product. Whether it is candy for the baby, or sugar for tea or coffee or preserves, Holly Sugar offers the saccharin for any occasion or purpose. When it is as good as any other brand on the market, and it is, why not favor this home product so that its continuation may be assured to the advantage of the community in which its facilities are established?

Many of our citizens remember that not so many years ago sugar factories were much more numerous in Orange county than they are today. The fact that Santa Ana still has one of the important plants of the Holly organization should make us all glad. It has community value which deserves our support.

THE SILLY SIDE OF THE STREET

FUNNY sometimes are our ideas of morals. Just now Long Beach police are the targets of withering glances from fair maids who have new bathing suits and shapely figures. The police have been ordered to enforce a city ordinance, which requires wraps to be worn over bathing suits except on the south side of Ocean boulevard. The Long Beach Press-Telegram says the officers have undertaken the task but many of them would rather face a bandit's gun than the scorn of the women. It seems it is all right to wear bathing suits without wraps if the girls don't cross the street. And it is all right for the honky-tonks to make night and day (Sundays included) hideous in the otherwise sleepy beach town. Evidently one can raise all the heck he wants to over there as long as he doesn't get his directions mixed up.

PROMISE AND PERFORMANCE

THE nation lost the use of another one of its great minds yesterday when Gen. Frank H. Hitchcock died. General Hitchcock, a former postmaster-general, one-time chairman of the Republican National committee and newspaper publisher, is credited more than any other man with having placed the post-office department in position to provide real service to the people. It was his mind that conceived the air mail, the postal savings bank and the parcel post. Regarded as "radical" then, all three divisions of the service have since proved well-nigh indispensable. The Republican party may well point with pride to the achievements of its notable leader, whose performance was greater than his promise.

WORTHWHILE TO SILENCE HUEY

THE ADMINISTRATION'S tax bill, having passed the house yesterday, will now occupy the spotlight in the senate. No doubt we shall hear from Mr. Long and some of the other wise-crackers. Regardless of the benefits or otherwise which may accrue from the measure if it becomes law, it will be worth about $250,000,000 if it succeeds in providing a season of silence for the Louisiana kingfish, who has been yelling to high Heaven that Mr. Roosevelt stole his thunder.

Whimsies

Broadway at 7:30 p. m. is like a swift waterfall in sudden pause. From Columbus Circle to Herald Square the gallop diminishes to a canter.

It's the seventh inning stretch before final rounds of the furious night. Shopkeepers come to doorways in relaxing away on awning ropes. Movie barkers put down their megaphones and unbutton their coats. Girls in the ticket cages have a moment to primp and talk to their beaux. The cafe head-waiters scan skies with anxious eye. A sudden shower means a loss never regained. Several in a row spell bankruptcy.

Taxi drivers hunker over just arrived tabloids and in the side street stage entrances chorus girls are in a side-walk clot before putting on their nightly make-up. In the triangular cemented patch in Times Square the pick-thanks discuss a day's chiseling.

Upstairs in the beauty parlors, the saxophone and accordion studios and the varied brightly lit niches of lesser arts, everybody is at windows luxuriating in the lull. As suddenly Broadway cascades into activity, as though some electrician had turned a switch.

Charles Frances Coe, first to exploit the gangster fictionally, is reputedly the most expert trader among the literati. When he begins bargaining with editors they take a clutch on their bridge work. He not only gets the highest prices for short stories and serials but also for after dinner speeches and radio broadcasts. He is known to intimates as "Socker," a nickname out of his amateur ring experiences.

George Randolph Chester was another novelist who was always able to take care of himself swapping plots for pelf. Some of his Wallingford tales got the biggest prices ever paid up to that time. And they ran longer than any series. The late Arthur Somers Roche was known as much for his ability, as the sanctums have it, "to mace editors" as he was for mystery plots. Kathleen Norris in the feminine division has bracketed herself at the top. Katherine Brush is a shrewd business lady, too.

Next to Poe, no crack writer ever salvaged so little for his efforts as O. Henry. Often his own fault, born of a desperation to keep going. Many times he would hawk a short story idea for what was then a fair price, $150. But after completing, he would take it around in person and agree to turn it over for a cashier's demand for $50 instead of waiting for the check through routine channels.

Old and gone Ainslee's was long a serene port in a writing storm. Scribblers could take a story there, or a poem, have it read while they waited in an ante-room. If it clicked an order on the cashier was sent out. Necessity has often inspired some fine efforts and in this way the magazine got excellent material at extremely low rates. There is a legend that Harris Merton Lyon, receiving sharp note from his landlady in the old Chelsea district, sat down and dashed off one of his short stories for Ainslee's in three hours, paid the rent and had enough for a blowout for a group of cronies at Moquin's.

The roughest, toughest ball games on the island take place on the West street water front during the late afternoon traffic dry-up. On the widest street, dock wall-papers and freight handlers crowd sides in a dozen or more games running simultaneously. Runners sometimes pause on bases to swing from the hip. It's brass vs. brass that often winds up in toe to toe fistfights. Another diversion is "slugging rats"—rodents as big as prairie dogs. Owney Madden was a champ slugger in boyhood. Experts swing a rock on the end of a rope and land four out of five. If they miss they are likely to be viciously attacked. Rat terriers have been worsted in fierce battles with these dock rats.

The Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—It is no hand corner was "Franklin D. Roosevelt."

THIRD PARTY
HARRY HOPKINS has got himself into the awkward situation of giving aid and comfort to the radical Third Party movement.

Almost no one knows it, but the platform of the Third Party group, which met in Chicago last month, was lifted almost bodily out of an economic survey made with FERA federal funds.

The survey was an effort to give work to unemployed. New York had a lot of technical men in or near the breadlines; set them to work on the survey.

What could U. S. industry produce if worked to capacity? Their unavoidable conclusion was that the country could produce plenty; that present ills grow out of failure to distribute.

It was but a step from this to accusing capitalism of that failure, advocating its overthrow.

The engineers did not take this step, but the Third Party, using their findings, did. It lifted the report almost in toto.

One of the engineers helping to prepare the original FERA report was Russian-born radical Walter L. Polakov. Having finished the report, Polakov is now working directly under Hopkins in Washington.

EDITOR'S NOTE—Here is an informative, analytical daily feature on current topics. The opinions expressed in this column are not necessarily the same as those held by The Journal.

Monopoly Always Defeats Itself

Governments go stumbling along by trial-and-error method, each making the same trials and repeating the bitter fruits of the same errors. The Canadian government has abolished the wheat pool, established in 1924 to help wheat producers by taxing consumers of wheat everywhere. Its experience was identical with that of our own federal wheat board. Enormous quantities of surplus grain were bought and withdrawn from the market in the fatuous belief that such action would raise and stabilize the price of wheat.

The mere common sense warns against such folly. Absorbing surplus stocks stimulates further production with ever-mounting surpluses and the consequent necessity of further government purchases. The growing accumulation of grain is a dead loss to the government, a constant threat of depression to the grain market, and a crushing burden to the tax-paying public. The wheat pool debacle caused world-wide slump in wheat prices, and the last state of the poor farmer in the Prairie Provinces is worse than the first. Such efforts to control prices must always collapse. No one people, no one government, is smart enough or rich enough to

Some automobile drivers seem to forget that intersections are for the use of all motorists. They rush through these always dangerous places with the attitude they were placed there for their exclusive use. Just then some other motorist, who has an idea he or she has a right to use the intersection, appears. The usual result is a collision, traffic cops, an ambulance, and later on a lawsuit. You can get an idea how many safe and courteous drivers are behind a steering wheel if you stand at an intersection and make an observation.

But from what I know about both of them anything can happen, and probably will.
